

Carpenter Drops Battle to Stop Boys' High Work

Compromise Effected Between Alderman and School Board at Conference Tuesday.

FAIRNESS PROMISED GIRLS' HIGH PROJECT

Aldermanic Board to Hold Special Session Today to Concur Unanimously in Boys' High Contract.

A compromise agreement between Alderman J. L. Carpenter and members of the board of education was reached late Tuesday afternoon which will permit work to begin immediately on erection of the Senior High School for Boys. This agreement followed action of Alderman Carpenter late Monday afternoon in serving notice of reconsideration on the school contracts before the aldermanic board, which automatically halted financial concurrence of that body with the bond commission, board of education and council.

Members of the board Tuesday agreed to put in writing today their willingness to grant Alderman Carpenter's demands. He demanded written assurance to council that the board would carry to the same state of completion both the Senior High School for Boys and the Senior High School for Girls out of the present available funds; that the Girls' High school would be erected on the Rosalia street site south of Grant park, and that both institutions would receive the same amount from the sale of condemned school property.

Alderman W. B. Hartford, of the third ward, arranged the compromise between Alderman Carpenter and the board, which will insure the work on the Boys' High school being started immediately. Alderman R. L. Gordon, mayor pro tem, stated that he would call a special meeting of the aldermanic board for this afternoon to formally accept Alderman Carpenter's withdrawal of his motion and allow the board unanimously to concur in the contracts.

A letter is promised. "It is already in the records of the board that both schools are to be carried to the same state of completion from the present bond funds," declared Commissioner W. L. McCalley, chairman of the finance and building committee of the board, "but I shall be glad to furnish call with a letter assuring them that Alderman Carpenter's wishes will be carried out."

"Under our present plans, which have been unanimously approved by the board of education, both high schools will receive the same amount of funds and as a matter of fact the Girls' High will be in a more finished state than the Boys' High owing to the large number of technical units required by the latter."

"So far as assuring Mr. Carpenter that the Girls' High school will be erected on the Rosalia site, I will pledge him that this site will be utilized for that purpose insofar as I am concerned. I was opposed to the Rosalia site until it was selected by the board for that purpose, but since it was unanimously agreed to build the school there, I am for carrying out the wishes of the majority."

W. W. Gaines, president of the board, voiced the same sentiments as Commissioner McCalley, stating that he would gladly sign the letter to council containing such assurances. Mr. Gaines reiterated his statements.

50 YEARS AGO TODAY IN THE CONSTITUTION (FACSIMILES)

CAMILLA. Camilla had a $50 fine on Sunday last. WASHINGTON. The past two years have been a period of improvement in the property of our town. Property is worth fifty per cent more than it was two years ago, and the houses of the town are desired in that time—Expositor.

FEART. Two negroes broke jail in our town on Saturday night last—Houston Daily Journal.

CUTHEART. The whooping cough and measles are troubling the babies of our town—Marion & Co's. (troupe of Japanese) will visit Sunday, April 21st.—During a ride through the country on Monday into Calhoun county, we were greatly encouraged at the condition of the plowing interests of the town—Expositor.

SAVANNAH. On Saturday afternoon Joseph B. Stetson, a fruit grower on the Lawrenceville road, four miles from Savannah, was killed by W. V. Gosselin—Advertiser.

AUGUSTA. The corner stone of the cenotaph to be erected on Georgia street in honor of the Confederate dead of St. James' Sunday school and of Richmond county, will be laid next Saturday, the 18th, Decoration Day, with appropriate Masonic ceremonies.—A large number of buildings are being erected in various parts of the city.—A crowd of five hundred people brought to the city every day.—(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

Confirm Desecration Of War Hero's Grave By Turkish Vandals

Washington, April 17.—State department agents designated to investigate charges that Turkish soldiers had mutilated the body and destroyed the coffin of George Dillibor, an American soldier to whom a congressional medal of honor was awarded after he met his death in the world war, have confirmed them. In a preliminary report, the agents said "those responsible for the profanation were apparently actuated by cupidity rather than by malice or any intentional act of disrespect."

A. & W. P. PROFITS NEARLY DOUBLED

Report at Directors' Meeting Indicates Prosperity. Officers Are Re-elected, Dividend Is Declared.

Reports showing profits almost double those of 1921 were made Tuesday at the annual meeting of officers and directors of the Atlanta and West Point railroad company in the general offices on East Hunter street. Net income of the railroad for 1922 was $277,985.52, an increase of $123,139.87 over the previous year.

Declaration of a 3 per cent semi-annual dividend, payable June 30, 1923, and re-election of present officers and directors were other developments of the session.

Officers and directors of the Western Railway of Alabama, the majority of them being connected with the Atlanta and West Point railroad, were also re-elected, but the annual statement of that road was not made public. It is owned entirely by the Central of Georgia, Louisville and Nashville and Atlantic Coast Lines.

Charles A. Wickham and W. H. Bruce were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of both roads. The following were re-elected to the directorate of the Atlanta and West Point railroad: H. Walters, New York; W. L. Mapother, Louisville; W. A. Winburn, Atlanta; and A. R. Layton, of Savannah; R. W. English, of Atlanta, and H. C. Fieher, of Newnan.

Following is the list of directors, re-elected on the board of the Western Railway of Alabama: H. Walters, New York; W. L. Mapother, Louisville; W. A. Winburn, Atlanta; and A. R. Layton, of Savannah; R. E. Steiner, of Montgomery, and N. P. Renfro, of Opelika.

Give New Station To Atlanta Roads Vauclean Advises

Railroads Are Badly Treated, Baldwin Locomotive Executive Tells Kiwanians.

Business men of Atlanta would profit by erecting a magnificent passenger station in Atlanta and giving it to the railroads entering the city, the Kiwanis club was told at its weekly luncheon Tuesday by Samuel M. Vauclean, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, of Philadelphia, who, with other officials of his company, is on a tour of the southern states.

"Not a single passenger station we have been in during the last two weeks has run in it," the visitor said. "The baggage cars can get under the shed, but the passenger cars are out in the rain. The only station that we saw that was a modern station was the one with long umbrella sheds at Mobile."

Raps Atlanta Station. "Go down and look at your own station. It is old and the roof needs mending. There are a lot of other things about it that need mending. But can the railroads do it? It would pay the business men of Atlanta to build a magnificent station here and make it a present to the railroads."

"Then everybody would want to go to Atlanta and get a good look at the station there. They would say that Atlantans are live people who know how to do business. It would have its effect immediately on any person stepping off the train. But don't censure the railroads for this condition. The railroads are in a measure impoverished. They are impoverished by law. They are impoverished by those who patronize them."

Speaks for Open Shop. One of the strongest advocates of the open shop in America, Mr. Vauclean outlined his principles of handling men at a banquet tendered him by the Employers' association of Atlanta Tuesday night at the Peacock club, before he boarded his train for Jacksonville at 9:30. "The only successful way to maintain an open shop, according to my way of thinking, is to open it every morning," he said. "There are no rules necessary for your men when you set the example yourself. If you aren't interested in your business, how can you expect your employees to be?"

"An understanding of human nature is the prime requisite of handling men. You must be square."

SECRETARY DAVIS OPPOSES LIFTING IMMIGRATION BAR

But President Harding Is Reported as Convinced That Labor Shortage Does Exist.

TESTS PROPOSED FOR IMMIGRANTS

Would Examine Prospective Settlers for Mental and Physical Fitness Before Leaving Home.

Washington, April 17.—Declaration of E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation, that the restrictive immigration law had made imminent a serious labor shortage, served today to draw the attention of government officials to the immigration question and the labor situation.

Both immigration and labor conditions were touched upon by the chairman at his meeting and Secretary Davis presented a report which, it was stated later at the White House, convinced President Harding that Judge Gary was quite correct in his statement that a labor shortage was threatened.

The portion of Judge Gary's statement as made at the annual meeting yesterday in New York of the United States Steel corporation stockholders criticizing the restrictive immigration laws and blaming it for the labor scarcity, however, brought replies from several quarters.

Chairman Johnson, of the house immigration committee, in a formal statement declared there should be no lifting of the restrictions of the act, and ascribed criticism of the statute by large corporations to a desire for cheaper labor. Senator Heflin, democrat, Alabama, also issued a statement in reply to Mr. Gary's declaration that congress, instead of liberalizing the present immigration laws, should at next session strengthen them.

Secretary Davis' report was written prior to Judge Gary's address but declared "throwing open the gates at a time of prosperity in order to flood the country with workers and non-workers would serve to bring prosperity to an end." Mr. Davis added that unemployment now had been reduced to a minimum and that wages were rising, supplementing his statement with a verbal statement to the president that a shortage of workers already existed in some of the skilled trades.

"Under these conditions, with labor everywhere in demand," the labor secretary's report said, "it is inevitable that there should be agitation among some for the lifting of immigration restrictions."

The report presented two features of legislation which Mr. Davis hopes to have enacted by the next congress to supplement the present law fixing immigration quotas for the various countries.

Would Test Health. "I propose that we establish strict but just tests of physical and mental health."

Continued on Page 2, Column 6.

CRUSHED BY TRUCK SCHOOL BOY DIES

Riding Home on Wagon, Joe Barnett, 12, Jumps to Death Under Wheels. Driver to Be Arrested.

Joe Barnett, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barnett, of Hapeville, died at Grady hospital at 8 o'clock Tuesday night as the result of injuries received at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when he was struck by a motor truck.

The boy was on his way home from school, it is said, and was riding on the rear of a wagon. Jumping from the wagon to the pavement on Center street, he fell in the path of a light truck owned by the White Provision company and operated by Henry Jones, colored.

The truck passed over his body and head before the driver could stop it, according to witnesses.

The accident was declared unavoidable by eyewitnesses, but E. J. Winn, chief of police at Hapeville, stated Tuesday night that Jones would be placed under arrest today and held until an official investigation is made.

The Barnett boy was taken to Grady hospital in a Barclay and Brandon ambulance. Physicians found his skull to be crushed. Efforts of surgeons to save his life proved futile.

Bold Attempt At Jail Delivery Foiled in Floyd

One Lone Bar Between Prisoners and Liberty—Baker Boys Among Prisoners.

Rome, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Just one bar Monday night stood between all of the prisoners in Floyd county jail and liberty, and that bar was about to be sawed, it is believed when Sheriff Wilson discovered one of the boldest attempts at jail delivery in the history of this section of Georgia.

At about midnight on Monday night, Sheriff Wilson heard a noise in the rear of the jail. The sheriff went to investigate and found two men, apparently in the act of breaking their way into the structure. They fled on his approach.

Investigation of the window at which they seemed to be working, disclosed the fact that the heavy wire screen had been torn away and one bar had been sawed in two. The sawing of a second bar would have made an opening amply large for a man to have passed through.

The sheriff and his deputies discovered that two lars in cell number 4 had been sawed entirely in two and that a hole large enough for a man to pass through had been made. This left the men in that cell at liberty to make their way to the window where the third bar had already been sawed. The sawing of one more bar would have left the path to freedom open.

While the prisoners were in their cells at night only occupants of cell number 4 could have escaped in the daytime, however, all of the white prisoners are turned loose into the general cage and when this was done, only the one unsawed bar stood between them and liberty.

Following the discovery of the attempted escape, Sheriff Wilson and his deputies made a thorough search of the prisoners and their effects. Several pieces of hack saw blades were found. The officers were not satisfied, however, that they had found all of the instruments in the prisoners' possession and as a matter of precaution, all bedding was taken away from them and other mattresses furnished them.

In addition, the white prisoners, who were confined in the cage with the sawed lars were transferred to other parts of the jail and the negro prisoners put on the lower floor.

As a further precaution, Sheriff Wilson stated that a deputy would be on guard on the second floor with the white prisoners all night for several nights to come.

The Baker boys, condemned to die on April 27, for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Morton, at LaFayette, nearly a year ago, were among the white prisoners lodged in cells on the first floor of the building. They were transferred to cells on the second floor along with other white prisoners, although officers declare there is responsibility for the attempt at jail delivery.

Athletic Club Honors Hudson For His Services

Reports Show That Club Is on Prosperous Financial Footing.

In appreciation of the faithful service rendered during the year, Scott Hudson has served as president of the Atlanta Athletic club, a rising vote of thanks was extended him last night by members of the club at the conclusion of their annual meeting at the town home on Auburn avenue.

This action followed a speech made by R. P. Jones, one of the directors in which he paid a high tribute to President Hudson.

"Much of the success of the club is attributed to the untiring efforts of Mr. Hudson and I know of no man who would have the interest in its welfare and advancement that Mr. Hudson has," he declared.

Mr. Hudson was not present at the meeting and the club secretary was instructed to inform him of the action of the club. Henry Heinz, vice president, presided.

The members were informed by R. P. Jones, chairman of the committee on the erection of the new club house, that the lot adjoining the club had been purchased, but no definite announcement as to when construction would begin could be made.

"The committee has consulted several architects, but no one has been instructed to draw up the plans. We are proceeding slowly on this matter as we intend to have the finest club house in the south," said Mr. Jones.

BRITAIN REVIEWS STATE'S PROGRESS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Georgia Educators Hear Parks Appeal for Reforms in Financing of Public School Systems.

BARROW PAYS TRIBUTE TO COUNTRY SCHOOLS

Prominent Public School Men to Outline Problem of Day at State Convention Here.

Problems confronting schools and colleges in Georgia at the present time; the effect of the compulsory education law in wiping out illiteracy, and an appeal for support of the higher institutions of learning to enable them to obtain adequate buildings and equipment, were outstanding topics touched in an address by Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech, at the session of the Georgia county and city school officials in the state capital Tuesday night.

At the afternoon session Dr. M. M. Parks, state superintendent of schools, delivered a forceful address outlining four vital changes he said are needed in the present system of financing public schools of Georgia. These changes, as advocated by Dr. Parks, included abolition of the present plan of long delayed payment of public school money; abolition of the present school warrant system; longer terms for teachers and officials to insure increased efficiency and to secure appropriation of one-half of the state's revenues for public school purposes.

County Problems. Chancellor David C. Barrow, of the University of Georgia, who shared honors with Dr. Brittain as the principal speaker of the evening, stressed the need for more comprehensive study of individual problems concerning various counties of the state. Each county has its separate and distinct individuality, he stated, and could not pattern after others.

Emphasizing the importance of county school officials and the part they take in all communities, Chancellor Barrow quoted figures showing that approximately 85 per cent of the people of the state are more or less dependent upon county officials for their education and business relations.

"I may be a trifle high in my percentage columns," declared Chancellor Barrow, "but I don't think I am. Who is responsible for the education of children in your county more than yourself? They depend on county school superintendents more than any other source, especially in sections of limited populace. Actual statistics show that 74 per cent of our school population is made up of rural students."

"Study your own individual county problems and let other counties alone. There are hardly two counties in the state that have similar problems confronting them because of their wide diversity."

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

SHANKS AND PEEL HEAD ELK PARADE

Candidates and Members From Atlanta and South to March Through Streets This Evening.

The Elks parade of 1,500 candidates and hundreds of handsomely costumed members of the order will march tonight at 6 o'clock from the Elks home at 40 East Ellis street to the Auditorium-Armory, where an initiation ceremony will take place.

The parade, in charge of Exalted Ruler L. F. McClelland, will be headed by Major General David C. Shanks, commanding officer at Fort McPherson, and Colonel William Lawson Peel, one of the most prominent men of Atlanta.

An interesting feature in the line of march will be the degree team of the Philadelphia lodge, which will reach the city this morning at 10:55 o'clock, and which will take part in the initiation ceremonies at the auditorium tonight. There will also be a number of the lodges from various Georgia cities and from other southern states. These, with the Elks of Atlanta, all costumed in brilliant uniforms, marching to the martial strains from a number of bands, will present a sight seldom witnessed in Atlanta.

Big Delegations Coming. Information regarding the attendance of Georgia lodges has been received by the local Elks lodge and the indications are that large delegations will come from all over the state. The LaGrange lodge will arrive in the city in two special cars, a large crowd will come from Macon, Columbus, Athens and other cities over the state.

The Philadelphia lodge will come in two special cars from the Pennsylvania city over the Southern rail.

Continued on Page 18, Column 3.

Germany Makes First Definite Offer of Peace

TRIBUTE IS PAID HOLY MOTHERHOOD BY MRS. WALKER

Wife of Governor-Elect Responds Eloquently to 'Welcome at Mother and P-T. Congress.'

MRS. JONES DESCRIBES AIMS OF ASSOCIATION

Cup Given to Sutton and Watch to Mrs. Peterson. Meet at Woman's Club Today.

"We have come holding high the banner of holy motherhood, saying to the whole world that we believe the woman who despises motherhood to be an enemy to society, an enemy to God's plan, a traitor to her latent powers and a reproach to her sex," Mrs. Clifford M. Walker, of Monroe, declared in her response to the welcome extended the tenth annual convention of the Georgia branch of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations which convened Tuesday night at the Wesley Memorial church.

G. W. Glauser, superintendent of the Decatur school, delivered the first address of welcome for the fifth district. His talk was followed by speeches from Mrs. Albert T. Akers, fifth district of Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. Charles H. Morris, for the Parent-Teacher association, of Atlanta; Mrs. Paul K. Rother, for the P-T-A. of the counties.

Children Our Jewels. "Our battle cry is the Cornelian cry, 'our children are our jewels,' and polish them we will until they are brought to reflect the glories of the Divine Image in which they were formed," Mrs. Walker declared. She then spoke of the encouragement and impetus given the association by the presence of so many parents and teachers, saying that the two names were so closely linked together that they were hardly distinguishable.

"For," Mrs. Walker declared, "a good teacher is a mother in spirit and a good mother is a teacher in fact." Mrs. Bruce Carr Jones, president, followed the address of Mrs. Walker, in which she declared that "three in-

Continued on Page 2, Column 7.

Sheltering Arms Receives $10,000 From Tag Sales

Working Mothers Lead List. Support of Nurseries for Year Assured.

Through the sale Tuesday of thousands of heart-shaped blue tags, approximately $10,000, was raised which will be sufficient to maintain the Sheltering Arms nurseries for another year, officials announced.

"It shows," declared Mrs. Marion Harper, president of the Nurseries' association, "that an appeal for the citizens of two decades hence has not been ignored by the citizens of today."

Hundreds of workers, old and young, organized in teams representing various civic bodies, were seen on busy downtown streets, on quiet residential streets, in office buildings, in fact, everywhere, in their efforts to sell a tag to every Atlantan.

Working Mothers Lead. Working mothers, for whose children the nurseries are provided, themselves assisted in the sale of tags, and their teams led the list, securing more than $400. It was declared by the chairman of the team, that the entire sum was gotten from workers in factories around Atlanta, in sums ranging from 10 to 50 cents, and that the fact that the mothers were compelled to leave their work for a few hours was a commendation, whether they raised any money or not.

One of the appealing incidents that marked the tag day, was related by one of the workers, who stated that an aged man selling apples, asked her, after she had purchased two apples from him, if he could buy a tag with apples, because he had no money. Similar incidents were reported by various workers, showing, they said, a sincere appreciation of the nurseries by poor people, who know what a great comfort they are to the mothers.

Little Ones Help. Even those of little sentimentality before the appealing eyes of the little boys and girls who stood by big plaster dogs, handing a tag to each one who dropped a coin into the bucket.

At the headquarters at the Georgia Museum scores of workers were kept busy counting the donations as they came in, under the supervision of Mrs. Marion Harper, the president, and Mrs. Black, the treasurer.

Chairman of Foreign Relations Committee Announces Terms Before Members of Reichstag.

20,000,000,000 MARKS TEMPORARY INDEMNITY

Final Figure on Reparations Payment to Be Decided by International Experts.

Berlin, April 17.—Germany has made her first definite "peace offer" since the French and Belgian troops marched into the Ruhr valley over three months ago.

The terms of Germany's reparations proposals, made public in a speech by Dr. Hugo Stressemann, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the reichstag, before the members of the reichstag, follow:

1. Temporary fixation of the indemnity at 20,000,000,000 gold marks. 2. A committee of international experts, as suggested by Secretary of State Hughes, to study Germany's ability to pay, after which the final reparations figure is to be set. 3. The reparations to be guaranteed by pledges of the German industrialists. 4. Restoration of German credit through the co-operation of the allies.

Like Bergmann Plan. The new offer presented by Stressemann after it had been approved by Chancellor Cuno's cabinet, is similar, with few exceptions, to the plan that Karl Bergmann would have offered at the allies' premiers' conference in Paris in January.

Bergmann's offer stipulated 30,000,000,000 gold marks as the final indemnity, but 10,000,000,000 of this sum was to have been secured through an international loan raised by aid of the allies. Under the Stressemann plan, there is nothing to prevent the international commission, after examining Germany's ability to pay, from assessing the former enemy nation a sum in excess of the 30,000,000,000 gold marks of the Bergmann proposal.

Significance of Speech. It is considered significant that Stressemann's speech with the definite peace proposals it contained, follows the address of Baron von Rosenberg, foreign minister, in the reichstag Monday. Rosenberg's speech, upon analysis, was after all a plea for peace between the French and German peoples, but, of course, contained the grain of "bitter" to placate the extreme nationalists who are constantly threatening the government.

Stressemann, in his speech, ventured the query whether France really wanted reparations or annexation. If she wanted the latter, he declared vehemently, Germany would never agree.

He stated that the expulsions from the Ruhr indicated that France had in mind separation of the Ruhr and Rhineland from the rest and hence Germany in event that negotiations were to begin, would make the preliminary demand that the exiles be returned.

PASTOR OF FAMOUS NEW YORK CHURCH DIES SUDDENLY

New York, April 17.—The Rev. Dr. George Clark Houghton, pastor for the last 26 years of the famous "Little Church Around the Corner," died suddenly of heart disease in the church rectory today.

The Weather

CLOUDY.

Washington—Forecast: Georgia: Cloudy to partly cloudy Wednesday. Thursday fair with rising temperature.

Local Weather Report.

Table with 3 columns: Station, Temperature, Rain. Rows include Atlanta, Birmingham, Boston, Buffalo, Charleston, Denver, Des Moines, Galveston, Hartford, Haver, Kansas City, Jacksonville, Knoxville, Louisville, Memphis, Miami, New Orleans, New York, North Platte, Oklahoma, Phoenix, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Seattle, Salt Lake City, San Antonio, Savannah, St. Petersburg, Tampa, Toledo, Tulsa, Washington, etc.

G. F. VON HERMANN, Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

A handsome silver loving cup was presented to Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, by the fifth district Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. W. M. McCutcheon, of Fraser street, presented a silver trophy. A beautiful platinum wrist watch was presented to Mrs. Z. V. Peterson, president of the fifth district, by the members of the fifth district association.

A delightful musical program was rendered by the Tech High school band, together with several choral selections by the Girls' High school. A squad of Girl Scouts served as ushers.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Jones. Seated on the rostrum were Mrs. P. H.

Union Pacific

FOR SALE

Flat newsprint paper suitable for small publishers and job printers.
The price is right.

WRECK VICTIM BURIED

Last Rites Given Millard Jolly at Decatur.

A crowd that filled to overflowing the Oak Grove church, just beyond Decatur, Monday afternoon, attended the funeral services of Millard Jolly, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jolly, who was killed Sunday evening when an automobile in which he was riding with Bord Hale, 19, of Chamblee, was wrecked by an inbound Seaboard Air Line passenger train near Tucker. The body was buried in the churchyard cemetery. Hale, who is at the Davis-Fischer hospital, is reported to be in a slightly improved condition. It has not been determined the full extent of his injuries.

Besides his parents, Jolly is survived by one sister, Miss Irma Lee, and seven brothers, Fred, Ralph, Joseph, Louis, Max, Donald and Alton. Greenberg & Bond were in charge of the funeral.

Bury Auto Victim.

Columbus, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—The body of W. C. Barfield, who was killed in an automobile accident in Plant City, Fla., last week, arrived early yesterday morning and was carried to the home of his father, M. E. Barfield, on Poplar street. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Rev. A. A. Haggard officiating. Mr. Barfield is survived by his widow, parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Barfield, six sisters and three brothers, all of Columbus.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED BY COTTON GROWERS

Increase to 22,000 Members Reported by Co-operative Directors' Meet.

Re-election of officers and directors marked the annual session of the Georgia Cotton Growers' Co-operative association at the Kimball house Tuesday. It was reported by Claude Eubanks, secretary, that more than 8,000 cotton growers had affiliated with the organization since February 1, bringing the total membership of the organization to 22,000.

Another important plan that materialized at the meeting, was the signing up of more than 400,000 bales of cotton for the 1923 crop. Much was accomplished in 1922 with the co-operative marketing plan, even though it was the initial effort of the organization, its officers stated. Officers of the organization were re-elected as follows: J. E. Conwell, Lavonia, president; W. A. Reeves, LaGrange, vice president; W. T. McArthur, McGregor, vice president; Claude Eubanks, Eastman, secretary; J. E. Conwell, W. A. Reeves, W. T. McArthur, A. M. Wilkins, of Comer, and E. H. Blount, of Sylvania, members of the executive committee.

Directors elected to represent the 20 districts of the state in the order named, were: J. L. Leslie, Rockmart; C. R. Ware, Lawrenceville; C. A. Addington, Lavonia; T. B. Thornton, Hartwell; O. E. Pate, Elberton; J. P. Wise, Baldwin; A. M. Wilkins, Comer; R. L. Manley, Bethlehem; J. C. Turner, Jefferson; H. H. Milam, Cartersville; A. T. Sneed, Carrollton; W. A. Reeves, LaGrange; P. C. Jeffords, Sycamore; E. H. Blount, Sylvania; W. T. McArthur, McGregor; Claude Eubanks, Eastman; W. J. Oliver, Shellman; Fred W. Brown, Statesboro; W. A. Shiver, Cairo, and Ben Baker, Ellington.

LARGE DELEGATION WILL GO TO MACON

11th Annual State Christian Convention Will Be Held April 20-22.

Several hundred delegates from the Atlanta district are planning to attend the eleventh annual Georgia Christian Endeavor convention, which will open in Macon Friday, April 20, running through Sunday, April 22, according to an announcement made Tuesday by the region's office.

Arrangements have been completed with the Central of Georgia railroad for a one-and-one-half fare rate for the round trip. Atlanta delegates are urged to get their identification blanks from Mr. Moe, of the Citizens Southern bank, Candler building, if not already supplied, in order to get benefit of the special rates. Tickets will be purchased at the Grant building office of the Central of Georgia Wednesday and Thursday. The "bag-out" banquet will be held Saturday night, April 21, following a parade of delegates through principal streets of the city. Sessions of the convention will be held in the First Presbyterian church, of which Dr. E. B. Douglas is pastor. Junior conferences will be held in the First Christian church.

More than 100 homes have been secured for entertainment of delegates. It is stated, and each visitor will be furnished his lodging and breakfast if registrations are in the hands of Miss Julia Parker at Macon not later than Friday, April 20.

"WILLIAM TELL" PLEASES AUDIENCE TUESDAY NIGHT

"William Tell" presented Wednesday night by a group of gifted Atlanta artists completely enthralled the audience. An artistic arrangement of the program was offered by Mrs. Charles Chalmers, pianist and musical director, and Mrs. Earl Sherwood Jackson, reader, in the popular series of opera recitals being presented by them and assisting singers for the benefit of post No. 78 of the American Legion.

Among those contributing largely to the success of the evening were Mrs. W. O. Charns, whose soprano voice was particularly effective in the aria, "Deep Shaded Forest," and again in the exquisite duet, "Fond Avowal," which she sang with A. W. Browning, tenor, in the role of Arnold.

The work of Mrs. Jackson as reader and Mrs. Chalmers at the piano was thoroughly satisfactory. Tuesday night's audience was enthusiastic in its praise, and many heard to exclaim that they could by no means afford to miss the last of this splendid series, which comes on Thursday night, when Meyerbeer's "L'Africain" will be presented at Cable hall at 8:15 o'clock.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN WILL SPEAK HERE FOR CREDIT MEN

Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, who was a candidate for the republican nomination for president in 1920, has accepted the invitation of the National Association of Credit Men to speak at its convention in Atlanta in June.

Other prominent persons who have accepted invitations to address the credit men are Governor John M. Park, of Louisiana, former Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and Dr. Ashby Jones, pastor of the Ponce de Leon Baptist church.

NEW HOTEL PROJECT IS BROACHED HERE

Possibility of the erection of a large hotel on the northeast corner of Spring and Harris streets, one block west of the Capital City club, arose Tuesday when Ben F. May bought the site from Byron Sanders for $125,000. The property fronts 103 feet on Spring street and extends 111 feet on Harris street.

Negotiations are under way between Ben J. Massie, real estate operator, and out-of-town hotel interests for the construction of a large hotel on the corner, it was learned. Mr. Massie stated that no definite plans have been made.

TODAY AT HIGH'SSale of 250 New Dresses

$34.75 to $39.75 Dresses at Practically Half Price

$18.80

Dresses as Fresh, as New, as Lovely as the Spring Woods in Bloom!

THEY'RE the work of one of the finest dress creators in the land. We're always only too happy to get dresses from this manufacturer, no matter what their price. But Good Fortune was with us this time; we went into his showroom just as he was winding up his spring business — getting ready to turn to fluffy, midsummer cotton frocks. He gave us our pick of his made-up spring stock, and we named our own price.

It's Our Best Dress Sale This Spring!

—Such dresses as you'll find here! Dresses that will go to Grand Opera matinees, dresses that will give beauty to bridge teas, dresses that will grace verandas of country clubs; dresses for practically any occasion you wish — all of them as fresh as morning roses!

—They're fashioned of Canton crepe, brocaded roshanara, novelty crepe and flat crepe. But it's the lovely embroidered jacquettes of them, the sparkle of crystal beads, the grace of a girdle, the blaze of a bright corsage and the audacity of a sleeve that captivates you!

That's why you must see them! Mere words simply cannot convey to you the good fortune that is yours in finding dresses like these at $18.80! It isn't necessary to say "BE EARLY!"

Dollar Sale Muslinwear!

Chance to stock up on good wearing muslinwear that's dainty as well as good.

—Nightgowns and teddies of good quality white nainsook in tailored styles trimmed with colored stitching or in lace trimmed styles. The teddies have lace straps over the shoulders; the nightgowns are in sleeveless or short sleeved styles — several styles.

—They're far better than their $1 price would lead you to believe—in fact, they measure up to $1.25 underthings.

There's a Breath of Spring in These

Pretty New Cretonnes At Special Prices

IF YOU are planning to re-cretonne your home this spring, here is your opportunity to get what you need for draperies, slip covers, summer furniture coverings, cushions, sofa pillows and such uses at fine savings.

—Several weeks ago, when mill agents were anxious to dispose of their surplus holdings, we bought these cretonnes to sell at —You'll find fine choosing among the numerous chintz, novel hand-blocked effects, striped, floral, bird and other patterns in bright colorings and subdued tones.

—The special prices we are quoting represent savings of anywhere from a third to a full half for you.

High's
Phone Main 1031
Whitehall and Hunter Streets

High's Makes Window Shades To Measure

Toiletware!

Of Imitation Ivory and Tortoise Shell in a

Sale at $1

EVERY up-to-date dressing table boasts a set of gleaming white imitation ivory or tortoise shell. And here's a Sale that will enable you to match up a set or fill out one already started for a surprisingly small amount. The pieces are of good, heavy quality, the ivory in a rich, creamy tint and the tortoise shell trimmed with a black or gold groove.

Choose From These Pieces

Mirrors
Hair Brushes
Dressing Combs
Puff Boxes
Hair Receivers
Bud Vases
Jewel Boxes
Pin Cushions
Photo Frames
Manicure Sets

They Bring Beauty From Over the Seas

Beaded Hand Bags Special, $3.95

IF they'd been produced at home, they would be priced many times $3.95, for these are lovely little bags with a world of work on them.

—Some of them have draw-string tops and some of them have beaded strap handles. They're in floral or conventional patterns in colors that will go with practically any costume. And they're trimmed with fringe. They're most unusual bags to be finding at $3.95!

Keep the wheels of business humming by advertising regularly

*Keep on telling them.
And you'll keep on selling them*

Frequency is the greatest factor in advertising

Dont Tell 'em Yesterday Tell 'em Today

TELL them regularly in

The Atlanta Constitution
Main 5000

DEPUTIES SLAIN, TWELVE MEN HELD

Round-Up of Suspects
Made in Connection With Fatal Shooting by Rum Smugglers.

New Orleans, April 17.—A dozen men were being held tonight in connection with the killing of two deputy sheriffs and the wounding of another one at the Lake Borgne canal bridge near Violet, La., early today in a clash between rum-runners and parish officers.

Joseph L. Estep and August Esteves, deputy sheriffs of St. Bernard parish, were the men killed and Joseph Guerre, another deputy sheriff, was injured by being struck on the head with a pistol by one of the rum-runners.

Acting upon a tip received that whisky runners would attempt to cross the canal bridge and run a truck load of liquor from St. Bernard parish to New Orleans, Sheriff Albert F. Estep and Deputy Sheriff Joseph L. Estep and August Esteves, deputy sheriffs of St. Bernard parish, were waiting at the bridge. In the dim morning light the three deputies spotted a heavily laden truck operated by two negroes approach the bridge.

Filled With Liquor.
The truck was halted and found to be loaded with whisky. Just behind the truck was a small automobile filled with men, according to Deputy Guerre. The small car drove up close and the occupants opened fire on the officers and leaped from the car. Esteves and Estep were instantly killed while Guerre was wounded with a blow on the head from behind. The men jumped back into the car and sped away, the two negro drivers accompanying them. The liquor laden truck was left at the scene of the shooting and taken charge of by the authorities.

An hour later a second truck reached the bridge and was halted by Deputy Guerre and Sheriff Estep. It was found to be loaded with whisky and the driver was taken into custody. Close behind the truck was another automobile in which there were twelve men. Both were arrested.

Following the report of the killing of the deputies Superintendent of Police Molony and a squad of police went to the scene and offered their assistance. Authorities of both New Orleans and St. Bernard parish began a round-up of known bootleggers and by midnight 12 men had been arrested for carrying liquor.

Authorities of St. Bernard parish believe that whisky runners are operating in the parish on a large scale and that carousers are being taken from large vessels from the Bahamas to small boats which transfer the liquor to trucks for transportation to New Orleans.

Walter Keefe and Joseph Fahnestock, two of the men arrested near the scene of the killing, who the police reported earlier in the day had announced their willingness to tell something of the shooting of the two officers, declared tonight they knew nothing about it.

Mrs. E. B. Hartman

Have You a Cough?
Read What This Woman Says

Atlanta, Ga.—"I had the flu and it left me with a terrible cough. I tried a case of bronchial cough which had been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The doctor's medicine was doing me no good, so I decided to try the 'Discovery' myself. The result was marvelous. My cough was entirely gone before I had finished taking the second bottle and I have had no cough since."—Mrs. E. B. Hartman, 199 Dalway Street.

When run-down you can quickly pick up and regain vim, vigor, vitality by obtaining this Medical Discovery of Dr. Pierce's at your nearest drug store in tablets or liquid, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. or write for free medical advice.—(adv.)

Girls! Girls!!
Clear Your Skin
With Cuticura

Removes each (Scalp, Face, Neck) of Cuticura. Lotion, Soap, Ointment, Tablets, Cream, etc. Sold everywhere.

HEROIC GUM REMEDY

At all drug stores or sent postpaid to Heroic Gum Remedy Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Facial Blemishes

Sallow, muddy, roughened or blotched complexion are usually due to constipation. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus secures regular bowel movements by Nature's own method—lubrication.

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot grip. Try it today.

Nujol

A LUBRICANT—NOT A LAXATIVE

CALL BELLE ISLE TAXICABS

Gruesome Story Told of Beating By Convict Guard

Declares "Whipping Boss"
Ground Heel Into Neck of Prostrate Youth.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 17.—The joint committee of the Florida legislature investigating reported brutalities in state and county camps today heard gruesome testimony in connection with the death of Martin Tabert, of North Dakota, who died while serving sentence in the camp of the Putnam Lumber company near Clara, Fla.

A. B. Shivers, former convict, who was employed by the company as a "whipping boss," held the committee spell-bound as he related how prisoners were flogged by the "whipping boss." He declared that whipping was a daily occurrence and that from one to five men were whipped each day to the best of his knowledge. He was employed by the company for more than six months, he said.

Shivers was grilled into giving most minor details and he named Walter Higginbotham, now under a first-degree murder indictment, as the "whipping boss" of the camp, who gave Tabert more than 100 licks, he said, with a heavy strap four days before the youth died.

In describing the whipping, the witness arose to feet and made a demonstration as to the actions of the "whipping boss." He declared this particular whipping administered to Tabert in the presence of 50 to 90 convicts and guards. That after more than 100 licks had been given the youth, the "whipping boss" followed the youth as he staggered in a half dazed condition, and with a whip over his head with the handle of the strap.

Sheriff Testifies.
Prior to Shivers taking the stand, Sheriff J. R. Jones, of Tallahassee, testified as to the arrest, conviction and leasing of Tabert to the lumber company.

During his testimony the sheriff was questioned as to the leasing of Tabert to the Putnam company. Ned Thompson, a 40-year-old negro who was sent to the Putnam camp after a peace warrant had been taken against him by a white man. The negro was under no sentence, according to court records.

Witnesses have been summoned to testify that the negro was whipped to severely at the camp there he was returned to Sheriff Jones. Three days after he returned to Tallahassee he died. The county officer admitted that he had entered into a contract with the Putnam company in which he was to receive $20 for each man he delivered to the camp. He further admitted that after adding various fees and deducting the cost of transportation of prisoners under guard from Tallahassee to the camp, a distance of 65 miles, he would average a profit of approximately $23 on each prisoner.

Closely Examined.
The sheriff was closely examined as to Tabert. He said he remembered having had in custody a man by that name and that he entered a plea of guilty to riding a freight train through Tallahassee. After being sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or three months at hard labor, Sheriff Jones said he did not recall whether Tabert made any effort to pay the fine.

The officer declared two days after Tabert was sentenced he was taken to the lease camp and that he received $20 for his delivery. "About eight days after Tabert left, I was notified by the postoffice that a registered letter had come for him addressed in my care. I did not see the letter, but I told the postoffice clerk to send it back; that the party had gone to Clara," declared Sheriff Jones.

"Didn't you know that the letter contained money to pay Tabert's fine, or did you not have an idea that it contained such?" Senator John P. Stokes, chairman of the committee, asked the sheriff.

"I did not," was the reply. "You said the Putnam company paid $20 a man. If a man paid his fine after he was delivered by you to the camp would there be any reduction in the fee paid by the company?" Senator Stokes asked.

"No," the sheriff answered. "I got mine whether he served one day or three months."

Denies Telegram.
After being questioned as to whether he gave orders to the Tallahassee postal officials not to forward any mail to prisoners confined at the Putnam camp, to which he entered an emphatic denial, he was asked whether he had received a telegram from Tabert's parents. Sheriff Jones also denied this.

He was then shown a letter signed by him as sheriff of Leon county to Norris H. Nelson, Muncie, N. D., in which he stated that "there was some money wired to him (Tabert) here after he was gone, but I could not get it, as it was sent in his name. I therefore returned it." "Sheriff Jones identified the signature as his own, but said he could not recall having received a telegram and believed in writing the letter he became confused with the registered letter."

Before questioning Shivers as to the doctoring and death of Tabert, the committee interrogated him on the condition of the Putnam company's camp and as to how the prisoners, which, he said, numbered at one time approximately 80 to 90, were treated. This was done after counsel for the lumber company appeared before the committee and requested that witnesses be and summoned be allowed to appear tomorrow morning. The request was granted.

Conditions Good.
Shivers said that the sanitary conditions of the camp were good. The working routine, he declared, was from 4 o'clock in the morning until after 6 o'clock at night. He further said that cots were furnished the prisoners and "some of them were given night shirts." He later testified that some of the prisoners under his supervision—Tabert worked in his gang—were taken to work from sunup to sundown in the swamps in water ranging from the ankles to the hips in depths.

Tabert was whipped on a Friday night, Shivers testified. He said that morning they walked approximately two miles to the swamp. Tabert was unable to keep up and often during the march, which was at the other prisoners stop and wait for the North Dakota.

When they returned to the guardhouse that night Higginbotham, Shivers declared, lined up the prisoners and called Tabert out of line. "Get down," Higginbotham told Tabert, Shivers said.

"The youth laid down on his stomach," declared the witness, and Higginbotham pulled up his shirt. He gave him about thirty licks as Tabert groaned and screamed for mercy. Tabert kept on twitching his body, so Higginbotham placed the heel of his boot on the youth's neck to make him keep his body rigid. He then gave him about forty to fifty more licks."

"Higginbotham told Tabert to get up and the boy was a little slow about it," Higginbotham said. "You can't work yet, eh?" and pushed the boy down on the ground again. This time he gave him about 25 licks. He told Tabert to get up, and when the boy straightened up, Higginbotham made a pass at him with the handle of the strap. He missed him and Tabert staggered around in a half circle with Higginbotham hitting him over the head and shoulders," declared Shivers. Tabert died Tuesday night, he said.

CLEAN-UP POSTERS TO BE DISPLAYED IN SHOW WINDOW

Benjamin D. Watkins, chairman of the clean-up and paint-up campaign, will today display the full board posters submitted in the art contest held under the supervision of the prizes committee of the campaign, of which Mrs. M. M. Stralini is chairman, in his show window, 15 Poplar street, under the City club assembly room.

Prize winners in the school activities contest will be announced today and the winners will be given $25 and first prize and $12.50 second prize. A great number of questions have been brought in to headquarters and data is being rapidly compiled to show the actual results of the campaign that officially closed April 1.

HOLD DEPARTMENT HAS NO AUTHORITY TO CONTROL LEASES

Washington, April 17.—An attempt to lift the restrictions placed upon foreign participation in the national wealth of the United States was made today in an appeal by the Roxana Petroleum corporation from a decision of the interior department barring it from leasing land on Indian oil lands. While itself a domestic organization, the Roxana company is controlled by the Shell Union Oil company, owned largely by Dutch and British interests.

The hearing conducted by Secretary Work, was on a petition for review of the case, the company asserting there was no authority for the interior department to control Indian leases except to the extent of securing a proper price for the product of the land and otherwise protecting the rights of the nation's wards.

NINE INDICTED FOR CONNECTION
IN KUZBAS SCHEME

New York, April 17.—Nine persons including P. Pascal Cosgrove, chairman of the autonomous industrial colony Kuzbas and Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties union, were indicted today for grand larceny on complaints of American investors in the Russian colonization scheme.

All of those indicted are alleged to have official connection with Kuzbas. By lurid advertisements and false representations, it is charged they induced Americans to invest in the Russian colony and some of them to go there and live.

Styron Is Elected
As New President Of Baraca-Philathea

The city union of the Baraca and Philathea Monday elected Steve Styron president. He is also president of the Epworth League Athletic association, vice president of the Georgia Baraca association, and publicity director of the St. Paul Baraca Sunday school class. A boom is on to elect him president of the State association which convenes in Augusta April 25 and 27.

The meeting Monday evening in St. Paul Methodist church was featured by a rousing welcome by Rev. J. E. Ellis, pastor, and a talk by C. B. Culpepper, teacher of the Inman Park Baraca class, on the "Value of City Union." Selections by Helton's orchestra, reading by Miss Matha Crow, games and refreshments were part of the program arranged by Miss Gladys Styron in the "E. O. H." room back of the church building.

A large number of Atlanta delegates will attend the Augusta state convention, and a special car has been secured to transport them there.

TWENTY PASTORS FOUND GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY

New York, April 17.—Twenty-three pottery manufacturing corporations and 20 individuals, members of the Sanitary Pottery association, which includes makers of 85 per cent of all the sanitary pottery produced in America, were convicted by a federal jury late today of conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Judge Van Fleet announced that sentences would be imposed Thursday. Meantime, the convicted men were permitted to retain their freedom on bond.

Before he gave the case to the jury Judge Van Fleet directed the acquittal of three individual defendants, C. E. Rhodes, general manager of the Kuzbas Sanitary Pottery company; Edmund B. Kling, factory manager of the Standard Sanitary company; and Chris Horton, president of the Boston Pottery company. These were the only ones of the accused that the jury did acquit.

Meeks 70, and Hasn't Had Sick Day in Eight Years

Well-Known Atlanta Insurance Man Declares He Tackles Work With Vim Since Tanlac Restored Health.

"Well, sir, I couldn't say anything better for Tanlac than that I am still enjoying the good health it brought me eight years ago," recently said W. H. Meeks, a well-known insurance man, living at 29 Dargan street, Atlanta.

"In the spring of 1915," explained Mr. Meeks, "I suffered a general breakdown. My stomach went wrong and I suffered a great deal from constipation and indigestion. My sleep was unquiet and I got up mornings feeling tired and without energy and strength to anything. I lost several pounds in weight and got in such bad shape I decided to leave Brunswick, where, at the time, I was engaged in the insurance business, and come to my daughter's home in Atlanta for a rest."

"When I reached Atlanta and found the Tanlac treatment being praised so highly I bought a bottle and after taking it I felt a great deal better. In fact, I was so much improved that I was able to return to Brunswick and resume my work. Then I secured another bottle of Tanlac, which built me up to normal health. I got to where I could tackle my work with a vim. In fact, I felt so good in every way that work was a pleasure, instead of a burden as before."

"I regained my lost weight, even though it was at a season of the year when I usually lose weight. Tanlac is without doubt a wonderful medicine at any rate it certainly did do the work for me. I have enjoyed excellent health ever since Tanlac put me on my feet and now I am not nearly seventy years of age I am as active and can get around as well as I could twenty years ago. If I ever get to feeling weak or nervous again I will surely take more Tanlac, for I know from experience that it can be depended upon for results."

Tanlac is a natural, all-over drugless. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.—(adv.)

ITALIAN MINISTERS HAND IN RESIGNATION

Mussolini Told Majority of Catholic Party Supports Administration.

Rome, April 17.—The minister of social welfare, Stefano Gavazzoni and Under-Secretaries Vassallo, Milani, and Grandi, all members of the Catholic popular party, have placed their portfolios at the disposal of Premier Mussolini.

Signor Cavazzoni, referring to the premier's demand that all cabinet members belonging to the Catholic party state whether they intended loyally to follow his policy or consider themselves bound by the resolutions adopted at their recent party conference, told the premier that the great majority of the party wished to continue in collaboration with the government. Signor Mussolini reserved final decision on the resignations.

Previous advice from Rome indicated that the government interprets the resolutions adopted at the Catholic party congress as only transitory acceptance of the present fascist government.

MARIETTA BREAKS RECORD IN RELAY
AT SCHOOL MEET

Rome, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—When the Marietta High school relay team took first place in the half-mile relay races here Saturday morning they broke their tie in points with the Dalton High school, and went on to beat the Berry schools, who were leading in points, and won the relay cup in the annual seventh district high school meet. At the same time they added up the points in the literary events and passed the cup for that phase of work in the meet to the Calhoun High school, whose representatives beat their nearest rivals two to one.

The totals in the athletic events were as follows: Marietta, 19; Berry schools, 17; Dalton, 14; Rome, 12; Cartersville, 7; Adairsville, 6; Dalton, 4; Calhoun, 2. Literary events results were: Calhoun, 15; Cartersville, 10; Rome, 6; Dalton, 6; Lafayette, 5; Berry schools, 5; Marietta, 4; Adairsville, 2.

Results in Literary Events.

Boys' Essay—First, Calhoun; second, Rome; (Collins Smith); third, Dalton; Girls' Essay—First, Berry Schools; (Anthony Colquhoun); second, Marietta; third, Cartersville. Declaration—First, Marion Sims, Dalton; (America's Best of Honor); second, Hilliard Good, Cedarown; (Ultimate America); third, Randolph Calhoun, Marietta; (The Black Horse and His Rider); Recitation—First, Lucy Bassett, Lafayette; (Angel's Hymn); second, Marybeth Powers, Rome; (The Littlest Rebel); third, Frances Howard, Cedarown; (The Poet of Seattle); (Music—First, Minnie Nelson, Calhoun; (Scholarship); second, Evelyn Sewell, Cartersville; (Prelude in G.); Bachmann; third, A. W. Dodd, Jr., Adairsville; (Hungarian Concert Piece), Impey; (Noblest Work—First, Dalton; second, Calhoun; third, Cedarown; fourth, Lafayette; fifth, Rome; sixth, Berry; seventh, Cartersville; eighth, Marietta; ninth, Adairsville; tenth, Rome; eleventh, Dalton; twelfth, Berry; thirteenth, Calhoun; fourteenth, Marietta; fifteenth, Rome; sixteenth, Dalton; seventeenth, Berry; eighteenth, Cartersville; nineteenth, Adairsville; twentieth, Rome; twenty-first, Dalton; twenty-second, Berry; twenty-third, Calhoun; twenty-fourth, Marietta; twenty-fifth, Rome; twenty-sixth, Dalton; twenty-seventh, Berry; twenty-eighth, Cartersville; twenty-ninth, Adairsville; thirtieth, Rome; thirty-first, Dalton; thirty-second, Berry; thirty-third, Calhoun; thirty-fourth, Marietta; thirty-fifth, Rome; thirty-sixth, Dalton; thirty-seventh, Berry; thirty-eighth, Cartersville; thirty-ninth, Adairsville; fortieth, Rome; forty-first, Dalton; forty-second, Berry; forty-third, Calhoun; forty-fourth, Marietta; forty-fifth, Rome; forty-sixth, Dalton; forty-seventh, Berry; forty-eighth, Cartersville; forty-ninth, Adairsville; fiftieth, Rome; fifty-first, Dalton; fifty-second, Berry; fifty-third, Calhoun; fifty-fourth, Marietta; fifty-fifth, Rome; fifty-sixth, Dalton; fifty-seventh, Berry; fifty-eighth, Cartersville; fifty-ninth, Adairsville; sixtieth, Rome; sixty-first, Dalton; sixty-second, Berry; sixty-third, Calhoun; sixty-fourth, Marietta; sixty-fifth, Rome; sixty-sixth, Dalton; sixty-seventh, Berry; sixty-eighth, Cartersville; sixty-ninth, Adairsville; seventieth, Rome; seventy-first, Dalton; seventy-second, Berry; seventy-third, Calhoun; seventy-fourth, Marietta; seventy-fifth, Rome; seventy-sixth, Dalton; seventy-seventh, Berry; seventy-eighth, Cartersville; seventy-ninth, Adairsville; eightieth, Rome; eighty-first, Dalton; eighty-second, Berry; eighty-third, Calhoun; eighty-fourth, Marietta; eighty-fifth, Rome; eighty-sixth, Dalton; eighty-seventh, Berry; eighty-eighth, Cartersville; eighty-ninth, Adairsville; ninetieth, Rome; ninety-first, Dalton; ninety-second, Berry; ninety-third, Calhoun; ninety-fourth, Marietta; ninety-fifth, Rome; ninety-sixth, Dalton; ninety-seventh, Berry; ninety-eighth, Cartersville; ninety-ninth, Adairsville; one hundredth, Rome; one hundred and first, Dalton; one hundred and second, Berry; one hundred and third, Calhoun; one hundred and fourth, Marietta; one hundred and fifth, Rome; one hundred and sixth, Dalton; one hundred and seventh, Berry; one hundred and eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and tenth, Rome; one hundred and eleventh, Dalton; one hundred and twelfth, Berry; one hundred and thirteenth, Calhoun; one hundred and fourteenth, Marietta; one hundred and fifteenth, Rome; one hundred and sixteenth, Dalton; one hundred and seventeenth, Berry; one hundred and eighteenth, Cartersville; one hundred and nineteenth, Adairsville; one hundred and twentieth, Rome; one hundred and twenty-first, Dalton; one hundred and twenty-second, Berry; one hundred and twenty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and twenty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and twenty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and twenty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and twenty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and twenty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and twenty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and thirtieth, Rome; one hundred and thirty-first, Dalton; one hundred and thirty-second, Berry; one hundred and thirty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and thirty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and thirty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and thirty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and thirty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and thirty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and thirty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and fortieth, Rome; one hundred and forty-first, Dalton; one hundred and forty-second, Berry; one hundred and forty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and forty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and forty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and forty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and forty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and forty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and forty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and fiftieth, Rome; one hundred and fifty-first, Dalton; one hundred and fifty-second, Berry; one hundred and fifty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and fifty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and fifty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and fifty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and fifty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and fifty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and fifty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and sixtieth, Rome; one hundred and sixty-first, Dalton; one hundred and sixty-second, Berry; one hundred and sixty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and sixty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and sixty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and sixty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and sixty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and sixty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and sixty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and seventieth, Rome; one hundred and seventy-first, Dalton; one hundred and seventy-second, Berry; one hundred and seventy-third, Calhoun; one hundred and seventy-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and seventy-fifth, Rome; one hundred and seventy-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and seventy-seventh, Berry; one hundred and seventy-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and seventy-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and eightieth, Rome; one hundred and eighty-first, Dalton; one hundred and eighty-second, Berry; one hundred and eighty-third, Calhoun; one hundred and eighty-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and eighty-fifth, Rome; one hundred and eighty-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and eighty-seventh, Berry; one hundred and eighty-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and eighty-ninth, Adairsville; one hundred and ninetieth, Rome; one hundred and ninety-first, Dalton; one hundred and ninety-second, Berry; one hundred and ninety-third, Calhoun; one hundred and ninety-fourth, Marietta; one hundred and ninety-fifth, Rome; one hundred and ninety-sixth, Dalton; one hundred and ninety-seventh, Berry; one hundred and ninety-eighth, Cartersville; one hundred and ninety-ninth, Adairsville; two hundredth, Rome; two hundred and first, Dalton; two hundred and second, Berry; two hundred and third, Calhoun; two hundred and fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and tenth, Rome; two hundred and eleventh, Dalton; two hundred and twelfth, Berry; two hundred and thirteenth, Calhoun; two hundred and fourteenth, Marietta; two hundred and fifteenth, Rome; two hundred and sixteenth, Dalton; two hundred and seventeenth, Berry; two hundred and eighteenth, Cartersville; two hundred and nineteenth, Adairsville; two hundred and twentieth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-first, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-second, Berry; two hundred and twenty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and twenty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and twenty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and twenty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and twenty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and thirtieth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-first, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-second, Berry; two hundred and thirty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and thirty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and thirty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and thirty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and thirty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fortieth, Rome; two hundred and forty-first, Dalton; two hundred and forty-second, Berry; two hundred and forty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and forty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and forty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and forty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and forty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and forty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and forty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fiftieth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-first, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-second, Berry; two hundred and fifty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and fifty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and fifty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and fifty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and sixtieth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-first, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-second, Berry; two hundred and sixty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and sixty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and sixty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and sixty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and sixty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and seventieth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-first, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-second, Berry; two hundred and seventy-third, Calhoun; two hundred and seventy-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and seventy-fifth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-seventh, Berry; two hundred and seventy-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and seventy-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and eightieth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-first, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-second, Berry; two hundred and eighty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and eighty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and eighty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and eighty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and ninetieth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-first, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-second, Berry; two hundred and ninety-third, Calhoun; two hundred and ninety-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and ninety-fifth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-seventh, Berry; two hundred and ninety-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninety-ninth, Adairsville; two hundredth, Rome; two hundred and first, Dalton; two hundred and second, Berry; two hundred and third, Calhoun; two hundred and fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and tenth, Rome; two hundred and eleventh, Dalton; two hundred and twelfth, Berry; two hundred and thirteenth, Calhoun; two hundred and fourteenth, Marietta; two hundred and fifteenth, Rome; two hundred and sixteenth, Dalton; two hundred and seventeenth, Berry; two hundred and eighteenth, Cartersville; two hundred and nineteenth, Adairsville; two hundred and twentieth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-first, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-second, Berry; two hundred and twenty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and twenty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and twenty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and twenty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and twenty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and thirtieth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-first, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-second, Berry; two hundred and thirty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and thirty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and thirty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and thirty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and thirty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fortieth, Rome; two hundred and forty-first, Dalton; two hundred and forty-second, Berry; two hundred and forty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and forty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and forty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and forty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and forty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and forty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and forty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fiftieth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-first, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-second, Berry; two hundred and fifty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and fifty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and fifty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and fifty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and sixtieth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-first, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-second, Berry; two hundred and sixty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and sixty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and sixty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and sixty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and sixty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and seventieth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-first, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-second, Berry; two hundred and seventy-third, Calhoun; two hundred and seventy-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and seventy-fifth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-seventh, Berry; two hundred and seventy-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and seventy-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and eightieth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-first, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-second, Berry; two hundred and eighty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and eighty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and eighty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and eighty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and ninetieth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-first, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-second, Berry; two hundred and ninety-third, Calhoun; two hundred and ninety-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and ninety-fifth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-seventh, Berry; two hundred and ninety-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninety-ninth, Adairsville; two hundredth, Rome; two hundred and first, Dalton; two hundred and second, Berry; two hundred and third, Calhoun; two hundred and fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and tenth, Rome; two hundred and eleventh, Dalton; two hundred and twelfth, Berry; two hundred and thirteenth, Calhoun; two hundred and fourteenth, Marietta; two hundred and fifteenth, Rome; two hundred and sixteenth, Dalton; two hundred and seventeenth, Berry; two hundred and eighteenth, Cartersville; two hundred and nineteenth, Adairsville; two hundred and twentieth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-first, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-second, Berry; two hundred and twenty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and twenty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and twenty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and twenty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and twenty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and thirtieth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-first, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-second, Berry; two hundred and thirty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and thirty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and thirty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and thirty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and thirty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fortieth, Rome; two hundred and forty-first, Dalton; two hundred and forty-second, Berry; two hundred and forty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and forty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and forty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and forty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and forty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and forty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and forty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fiftieth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-first, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-second, Berry; two hundred and fifty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and fifty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and fifty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and fifty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and sixtieth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-first, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-second, Berry; two hundred and sixty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and sixty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and sixty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and sixty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and sixty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and seventieth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-first, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-second, Berry; two hundred and seventy-third, Calhoun; two hundred and seventy-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and seventy-fifth, Rome; two hundred and seventy-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventy-seventh, Berry; two hundred and seventy-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and seventy-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and eightieth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-first, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-second, Berry; two hundred and eighty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and eighty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and eighty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and eighty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and eighty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and eighty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and ninetieth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-first, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-second, Berry; two hundred and ninety-third, Calhoun; two hundred and ninety-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and ninety-fifth, Rome; two hundred and ninety-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and ninety-seventh, Berry; two hundred and ninety-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninety-ninth, Adairsville; two hundredth, Rome; two hundred and first, Dalton; two hundred and second, Berry; two hundred and third, Calhoun; two hundred and fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixth, Dalton; two hundred and seventh, Berry; two hundred and eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and tenth, Rome; two hundred and eleventh, Dalton; two hundred and twelfth, Berry; two hundred and thirteenth, Calhoun; two hundred and fourteenth, Marietta; two hundred and fifteenth, Rome; two hundred and sixteenth, Dalton; two hundred and seventeenth, Berry; two hundred and eighteenth, Cartersville; two hundred and nineteenth, Adairsville; two hundred and twentieth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-first, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-second, Berry; two hundred and twenty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and twenty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and twenty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and twenty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and twenty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and twenty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and twenty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and thirtieth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-first, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-second, Berry; two hundred and thirty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and thirty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and thirty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and thirty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and thirty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and thirty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and thirty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fortieth, Rome; two hundred and forty-first, Dalton; two hundred and forty-second, Berry; two hundred and forty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and forty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and forty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and forty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and forty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and forty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and forty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and fiftieth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-first, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-second, Berry; two hundred and fifty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and fifty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and fifty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and fifty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and fifty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and fifty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and fifty-ninth, Adairsville; two hundred and sixtieth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-first, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-second, Berry; two hundred and sixty-third, Calhoun; two hundred and sixty-fourth, Marietta; two hundred and sixty-fifth, Rome; two hundred and sixty-sixth, Dalton; two hundred and sixty-seventh, Berry; two hundred and sixty-eighth, Cartersville; two hundred and sixty-ninth,

MUST CHOOSE FIGURES FOR MEMORIAL AT ONCE

Borglum Pleads for Haste in Making Plans for Stone Mountain Carvings.

Final opportunity will be given the people of each of the thirteen southern states to indicate what confederate general from each respective state will be memorialized in the Stone Mountain confederate monument, when the governors of these states, or their representatives, meet with the sculptor, Gutzon Borglum, and members of the Stone Mountain Memorial association at a dinner to be given in Atlanta Friday evening at the Capital City club.

"The time," said Mr. Borglum, "has arrived when we shall finally have to perfect all our plans for the figures that are to be placed upon the mountain. I am beginning work on the mountainside this week, and we will shape up the working models for the entire memorial without further delay."

Each State Represented.

"It is our desire that each state be given an opportunity to designate its representative who are to be placed in the second group of generals to support the central group of Lee, Jackson and Davis. For this reason the dinner was arranged, having as a primary object the assembling of governors of the various states, or their representatives."

Speaking further of the need for action at the present time, Mr. Borglum said: "We feel that the work we are doing now is of the highest importance, and that notwithstanding the need for action, we should do nothing at all without the most careful thought and consideration. We are seeking to create an imperishable memorial that will make the figures, as well as the names of the south's greatest military men live throughout the ages. However, the time has been reached when we must come to a final decision."

Notables to be Present.

Among important figures who will be present at the dinner are Colonel C. O. Sherill, chief aide to President Harding, who will represent the chief executive of the nation; several governors, a number of congressmen, governors of various southern states, presidents of universities and historical societies and other persons of note. Those attending the dinner will be guests of Sam H. Venable, owner of Stone Mountain. Mr. Venable will entertain the visitors at an old-time Georgia barbecue, which is to be given Saturday at Stone Mountain.

Insurance Fraud Revealed Here; Seek Negro Agent

Certificates of Negroes' "Death" Forged and Big Sum Is Secured.

Forgery of death certificates of policy holders, of burial certificates, of record certificates to the state department of vital statistics and of endorsements on checks sent in payment to supposedly dead beneficiaries was Tuesday revealed by the local forger bond department of the National Surety company in the case of the colored agent at Washington, Ga., of a local negro insurance company.

In view of the fact that the agent, who is being sought by the surety company, committed five alleged forgeries on each of the policies, officials of the concern termed the Wilkes county case one of the boldest cases of forgery in the history of Georgia criminal annals.

The negro agent is said to have secured a considerable sum as the result of his operations. The method pursued in this unique system of forgery, as outlined by officials of the surety company, were as follows:

Method Employed.

After he had issued the policies to bona fide colored patrons of the Atlanta Insurance company, the agent forged a physician's certificate of the "death" of the policy holder. Next he forged a burial certificate and later a death certificate to the state bureau of vital statistics, which officially recorded the "death" of the policy holder.

The death claims were next forwarded to the home office and checks were issued in payment to the beneficiaries and sent to the agent. The latter then forged endorsements of the beneficiaries and deposited the checks in Washington and Atlanta banks. Meanwhile the policy holders were ignorant of the fact that their "death" had officially occurred, and it was due to the fact that one of them appeared at the Atlanta office to pay a premium that the fraud was brought to light.

Losses Covered.

Tuesday the claims were presented by the Atlanta Insurance company to the local forger bond department of the National Surety company, which assures the insurance company against forgery, and the losses were covered by the surety company. It is stated that policy holders will be protected against loss despite the fact that their policies have been marked "paid" and cancelled.

Officials of the surety company Tuesday stated that this is the second case of forgery of its particular kind to come to light in the history of the organization. They were unable to say how long it had been in progress due to the fact that the agent and apparently kept up some of the policies by paying premiums out of his own pocket in order to cash in heavily later.

Auto and Accessory Dealers Will Meet Today and Thursday

Two meetings to discuss new problems confronting members of the automobile industry will be held this week by branches of the Atlanta Automobile association.

Members of the accessory division will dine Wednesday at 6:30 o'clock in the assembly hall of the chamber of commerce, while those who belong to the dealers' division will meet at a supper to be given at Capital City club at the same hour on Thursday. Discussion of problems peculiar to the accessory trade and consideration of suggestions for betterment of service will feature the first banquet. The accessory division is composed of 80 per cent of eligible accessory dealers in the city and suburbs.

R. H. Martin, president of the used car statistical bureau of Atlanta, will outline to dealers the plan of operation used by the bureau. Both sides will stage roundtable discussions at the close of their meetings.

SINGING POLICEMEN WILL CONVENE HERE

A statewide singing convention, sponsored by the singing class of the Atlanta police department, is being promoted by a special committee of officers headed by E. C. Hudson. Decision to invite singing classes from all over the state to Atlanta October 12, 13 and 14 was made following a visit of Judge A. D. Atkins of Lithuania, to Atlanta last Sunday when he attended the regular Sunday afternoon singing at police headquarters and suggested the convention.

Court of Appeals of Ga.

Judgments Affirmed.
Shelton v. Carroll County; from Carroll superior court—Judge Rye, Egan Spradlin, Raymond Robinson, S. Holderness, for plaintiff in error, James Beall, contra. Smith et al. v. Atlanta, from Cobb superior court—Judge Jones, R. D. Feagin, Shouler & Dwyer, for plaintiffs in error, Harris, Harris & Wilkins, contra.
Judgments Reversed.
Patrick v. Davis, agent; from Muscogee superior court—Judge Munro, George G. Elmer, G. Y. Tigner, for plaintiff in error, Battle & Arnold, contra.
Merritt v. Mott; from Miller city court—Judge Green, R. W. Grow, Hartsfield & Cooper, for plaintiff in error, P. D. Rich, contra.
Jones v. Georgia Casualty Company; from Calhoun superior court—Judge Carter, A. W. Carter, W. C. Neill, for plaintiff in error, P. F. Brown, Arnold & Bates, contra.
Kirkland v. Luke; from Berrien superior court—Judge Dickerson, (Reversed in part, R. A. Hendricks, for plaintiff in error, R. H. Smith, contra.

We're Pointing Out Here Merely the Main Points of Interest in Today's "Once-a-Week" Sale

Values Too Good to Miss in Every Part of the Store. Be Sure to Share Them!

On the Fourth Floor

EXTRAORDINARY

In the Truest Sense of the Word Are These

Dresses

AT $15

As a feature for the day's selling we have assembled under the low price quoted above about two hundred dresses. The number from which you may choose and the wide range of styles covered by the assortment make it a feature of utmost importance.

They're dresses for wear now—and on into the summer. Among them you'll find the wanted crepes—not only in plain colors, but also in the prints and combinations that have found such favor in Fashion's eyes.

This sale offers a splendid opportunity for filling the niches in your wardrobe at a cost that is way below the real value of the garment which you secure.

35c to 49c Cotton Goods 29c

—Madras—32 inches wide in a good assortment of designs and colors.

—Ginghams—32 inches wide—a wide range of highly favored patterns.

—Plisse Crepe—32 inches wide in stripes, checks and flowered designs.

—Kimono Crepe—in many patterns and rich colorings.

—Mercerized Foulards—32 inches wide. Quite a range to choose from.

—Kiddie Cloth—neatest striped patterns for children's wear.

—Pillow Cases—42x36 inches—heavy and durable. 40c grades.

—Turkish Towels—good large size and of very serviceable quality.

A Special Table of 10c

Notions

6c

Among the wanted things that you'll find on this special 6-cent table are these——Pearl Buttons, some in colors—Hairpins—Cube Pins in assorted colors—Safety Pins—Kid Hair Curlers—Pin Sheets—Shoulder Strap Tape—West Electric Curlers—Middy Laces and Braid in assorted colors—Dress Snaps in white or black—Dress Belting—White Bias Tape—Gates Wavers—Shoe Trees—Darners.

Main Floor

An Unusually Good Value Genuine Cedarcliff Black Satin

Slippers

$3.95

Pair

—These Slippers are nicely finished and will wear because they are made of genuine Cedarcliff satin—the best shoe satin manufactured—one-strap styles, either low or military heels—plain or brocaded backs.

Neckwear 89c

Including $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 grades—Berthas, panel collars, boat-shaped collars, vestees and sets. Organza, net, lace and eyelet embroidery. Lace-trimmed and embroidered. White, cream, ecru.

Main Floor

On the Second Floor

Charming Summer Hats

Featuring New Styles in Crepes, Silks and Straw Combinations

High colors, such as sand, gray, orchid, copen, wood brown, strawberry and red, also navy and black, are represented. The smart trimmings include bright-hued flowers, ribbons, embroidery and ostrich. Values are exceptional. TODAY

$5

Getting ready to pack away your winter coats, suits and furs? You'll want

Cedar Chests

These are made with specially reinforced tongue and groove corners, eliminating the use of nails or screws—making a box that is dust-proof as well as moth-proof. A special flange also insures a very tight-fitting lid. These are beautifully finished—and come in sizes small enough for furs alone and ranging up to the large packing chests.

Specially Priced

according to size as follows—

$12.00—$13.50—$15.00

$18.75—$22.50 and up to $35.00

Fifth Floor

Hosiery

Women's silk hose—full fashioned. Choice from brown, polo, black and white. One of our best $2.00 grades—special at.....$1.79

Women's silk hose with embroidered clox—black with white, white with black, brown with white and tan with white. $1.75 qualities at.....$1.25

Children's 3-4 length socks of splendid mercerized lisle. White with fancy tops. Sizes 7 to 9. Regular 50c qualities in this sale at.....39c

Gloves

Chamoisette gloves—16-button length. To be had in mode, pongee, covert, mastic and gray. Most unusual values at.....$1.00

Short chamoisette gloves—2-clasp styles. White only. Washable. Broken assortments group at the special clearance price of.....50c

Handkerchiefs

Women's all linen handkerchiefs—beautiful quality and with small, daintily hand-embroidered initials. 50c values—3 for $1.00, or, each.....35c

Main Floor

Underwear

Women's athletic union suits of pink nainsook or striped mull. Sizes 36 and 38 only. Somewhat mused and soiled, for which reason $1.00 to $2.00 values will be cleared out at.....79c

Knit Teddies—belonging to a well and favorably known brand. Envelope styles. An odd collection of $1.50 and $1.75 qualities at.....$1.25

Gauze Vests—oddments of regular 65c to 85c qualities. Both plain and fancy styles. For quick clearance in this sale 3 for $1.00, or, each.....35c

Second Floor

On the Third Floor

For Misses and Children—A Sale of Pretty

Wash Dresses

At 95c

A clearance lot representing values up to $4.00. High neck and long sleeve styles in sizes from 10 to 14. Odds and ends of various priced groups in a collection at 95c.

At $1.95

Sizes here are for girls from 6 to 14. Plain colors and checks—in numerous pretty colorings. Short sleeves—new and exceedingly good looking. Priced at $1.95.

At $3.95

Junior and Misses' sizes—13, 15 and 17—also for girls 6 to 14. This group includes values up to $7.50—splendid variety in designs, colorings and styles.

Also Misses'

Taffeta Dresses

New taffeta dresses for misses—in numbers of styles that are highly attractive and will be found pleasingly becoming to misses of various types, trimmed in many unique and distinctive ways. Colors are principally copen, navy, brown and black. Three splendid groups—

Regular $19.75 value... $14.95

$27.50 and $29.75 values... $19.75

$35.00 and $39.75 values... $29.75

Beaded Bags $2.50

Good looking steel beaded bags with bead tassel at bottom. Gray and black principally—a few in assorted colors. A comparatively small lot—bought special, priced special.

Main Floor

In the Downstairs Store

Just reached us Monday afternoon via the Extra Special Purchase Route—hence the almost unbelievably low prices

Alltime Crepe Dresses

This department's buyer, now in New York, has just sent us these dresses. He "picked them up" in a special purchase, and they're altogether remarkable at this price. Made of alltime crepe in several good styles—many with very attractive Paisley combinations.

$6.95

Women's Jersey Dresses

In the same fortunate purchase came these jersey dresses that go on sale tomorrow at $4.95. The striking feature about these is the bandana effect at the neck—with cap to match—showing also the bandana trimming. Several effects from which to choose.

$4.95

Davison-Paxon-Stokes Co.

Take Calotabs
TRADE MARK REG
for the liver
Beware of imitations. Demand the genuine in 10c and 35c packages bearing above trade mark.

Read
the advertisement about U. S. Tires on page 10. We distribute this make only.
Quick Tire Service, Inc.
44 W. Peachtree St.
Ivy 0065-0066

WASHINGTON, D. C. BURLINGTON HOTEL
VI. Ave. at Thomas Circle, N. W.
380 Rooms
A quiet, refined hotel, conveniently situated to all points of interest.
Room with bath $2.50 to $4.00
Room without bath $2.00 and $2.50

"EUROPE-1923"
25 Tours TO EUROPE this Spring and Summer
American Express CONDUCTED TOURS
Wide range of choice
Write for booklet
Steamship tickets—all lines
29 Jackson St.
Main 5471
AMERICAN EXPRESS

TRAVEL by MONOCLASS (ONE CLASS) CABIN to EUROPE
Everything Canadian Pacific Standard—The Ultimate in Travel Comfort. "Aristocratic service at democratic rates." Only four days open sea. Frequent sailings from Montreal and Quebec. Further information from local steamship agents or E. G. Chesbrough, Gen. Agt. Pass. Dept. Canadian Pacific Railway, 49 W. Taylor St. Montreal, Quebec, Canada.
Canadian Pacific
IT SPANS THE WORLD

Lou Adler Says:

In nearly every advertisement that you read you see the word SERVICE. It is one of the most popular expressions of the advertising man's vocabulary.

I am no advertising man and so may be wrong, but it seems to me that the statement SERVICE needs a little explanation, or in the words of Rube Goldberg, "it doesn't mean anything."

In telling you about LOU ADLER SERVICE, I feel that the mere statement that I render my customers service is not enough. I am going to describe just what that service consists of.

Careful Buying

As a merchant I act as your buyer—four times each year it is my duty to go into the large city centers and select from the hundreds of thousands of articles offered those which are correct in style—perfectly tailored—and made of the finest materials. As your buyer I learn everything to be known about every article I stock—not only that I may decide whether it is a good purchase but also so that I can tell you exactly what is in it when you ask me. I assure myself that my stock does not include fads but will continue to be correct in style for an indefinite period. This policy protects you.

Information and Advice on Styles

I do not buy on the impulse of the moment, and therefore do not expect my customers to select their haberdashery or clothing that way.

My assistants and myself regard it as a pleasure to show any article or articles in the store, whether there is a sale made or not. We are glad to give our advice or any information regarding men's wear to anyone who desires it.

Many of Atlanta's best dressed men drop in my store regularly merely to see the new things that men are wearing. This is part of my service.

You are cordially invited to use it.

Alterations

Even the finest tailored clothes (Stratford, for instance) occasionally require alterations in order to fit perfectly. I employ the very finest tailors that I can find to take care of the alterations. That is why every L. C. ADLER suit that you see fits so well.

Delivery

I am always pleased to "rush" alterations and delivery when necessary in order to get clothing to you when you need it. Remember this if you're ever in a pinch.

General Service

In addition to the other services are these:

A perfect range of prices, "From the cheapest that's good to the best that is made." Exclusive sales on such leading lines as STRATFORD CLOTHES, DUNLAP HATS, etc. A complete stock in everything men wear.

This, then, is L. C. ADLER service. If it fills your needs I sincerely hope that you will take advantage of it, and that soon.

L. C. ADLER
113 Peachtree St.
Opposite Piedmont Hotel

RICHMOND RUMOR SAYS 'BAMA TO LOSE BERNIER

Opening Day is Declared Half Holiday by Mayor

Proclamation Was Issued Yesterday; Many Unusual Stunts To Be Performed

Johnny Brock Will Attempt to Catch Ball Thrown From Fourth National Bank Building.

So that every baseball fan in Atlanta may be able to attend the opening day game between the Crackers and Chattanooga at Ponce de Leon park next Thursday afternoon, Mayor Walter Sims issued a half holiday proclamation yesterday.

In his proclamation Mayor Sims urged that all places of business close at 1 o'clock p. m. and those that cannot close on this day, allow as many of their employees to attend as possible.

The proclamation is as follows: Whereas, the Southern Baseball league will open its season at Atlanta, Ga., next Thursday, and the Atlanta baseball team will participate in said opening game, and

Whereas, there is a contest for attendance in each city where said Southern league plays and

Whereas, baseball is a clean sport and should be patronized, and encouraged,

Therefore, I, Walter A. Sims, mayor of the city of Atlanta, do hereby declare a half holiday in all departments of said city, on Thursday afternoon, April 19, 1923, and that the officials and employees are urged to attend said opening game at Ponce de Leon park, and that the city hall be closed in so far as it may be practicable after 1 o'clock p. m. on said 19th day of April, 1923, and I urge upon all employers to allow their employees to attend said game.

Witness my hand and official seal, this 17th day of April, 1923.

WALTER A. SIMS,
Mayor, City of Atlanta.

The day's program will get under way Thursday morning at 11 o'clock when Johnny Brock, second string receiver of the Crackers will make an attempt to catch a ball thrown from the top of the Fourth National Bank building.

Following this feat, a parade of all the players will be held through the main business section.

Other stunts have been arranged and will come off at the park, while John D. Martin, president of the league and other notables will be the guests of honor at the opening game.

Memphis, New Orleans and Birmingham, the other three cities in the circuit, who will compete with Atlanta for the attendance cup are all making arrangements for record-breaking crowds.

Atlanta has won the attendance cup for the past two years and the other cities are anxious to wrest the honor from Atlanta. All civic organizations in other cities are behind the movement and no doubt Atlanta will have to break all previous records to be able to retain the trophy.

Two cups are offered each year by President Martin. One cup is given to either Atlanta, Memphis, New Orleans or Birmingham that has the largest attendance, while the other cup is given between the four smaller clubs in the circuit, Little Rock, Mobile, Chattanooga and Mobile.

Witness my hand and official seal, this 17th day of April, 1923.

WALTER A. SIMS,
Mayor, City of Atlanta.

The day's program will get under way Thursday morning at 11 o'clock when Johnny Brock, second string receiver of the Crackers will make an attempt to catch a ball thrown from the top of the Fourth National Bank building.

Following this feat, a parade of all the players will be held through the main business section.

Other stunts have been arranged and will come off at the park, while John D. Martin, president of the league and other notables will be the guests of honor at the opening game.

Claire Frye First Casualty In Jackets Spring Football

Game Between Proposed Varsity and Old-Timers Is Scheduled to Be Played May 5.

BY AL STATION.

"This looks like the middle of the season," sighed Felton McConnell as he draped his weary form around the stove for warmth. This is the keynote of the present spring football practice at Tech.

The writer went out in uniform yesterday for the first time, and if the work is any lighter than the October work of the past five years, he failed to note the difference.

Sixty men are out in uniform. A corps of the men who will be lost from last year's team are out helping out with the new material. Lyman, McDonough, A. Stator, Borum, Poyon are among those present.

Tuesday Station took the ends and put them through a stiff workout, scrimmage being out in the field. The freshmen went with Pup Phillips, the dummies where they tackled and outdoor until all of them were tired out and will be played on the lower field, as the basal team is playing the University of North Carolina on the upper field at that date.

After this the whole squad went down under pants and tackled. Claire Frye sustained the first casualty of the season when he came up with blood streaming from his head where a cleat had cut him. The last act on the program was a stiff signal drill with a defensive team offering some opposition. Frye was again the goat and sustained a bruised hand when someone over anxious tackle stamped it into the ground.

Real honest-to-goodness scrimmage starts in two weeks. This will lead up to the only game of the spring season, which is to be played May 5. This game will be between the proposed lineup for next year and the men who played on the team last year, but who will not be eligible to play next year.

The two teams will line up about as follows, from indications at this time of the year: Tech—Frye center, McConnell and McIntyre guards, Connel and Uryt backs, J. Stator and Gardner ends, Goodwin fullback, W. McDonough fullback, Hunt and Harris halfbacks, Oldimers—Amis or LeBay center, Davis and Borum guards, Mitchell, Argentroot and Poyon ends, A. Stator and Lyman tackles, McDonough quarter, Homer Carter fullback, Barron and Brewster halves.

This game will start at 2:30 o'clock and will be played on the lower field, as the basal team is playing the University of North Carolina on the upper field at that date.

The National Assembly of Panama has rejected a bill giving women permission to practice law.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—(Associated Press.)—The University of Kentucky Athletic and Alumni authorities are contemplating plans for the erection of a mammoth stadium, to be the largest in the south, on the present site of Stoll field. When completed, the structure will comfortably accommodate 25,000 people. The cost will be not less than $250,000.

The great concrete stadium will be of horseshoe shape and will be 400 feet long with thirty-five rows of seats. The first subscriptions will be taken among the students of the university, and it is expected that $25,000 will be raised on the campus. The students will subscribe approximately $25 each and will have sixteen months in which to pay the amount.

The structure will present the appearance of a great building with a glazed front. The drive for funds will open Tuesday and it is thought that a good part of the stadium will be completed by the opening of the grid season this year. Along with the stadium will be built a basketball building.

Richmond, Va., April 17.—(Special.)—Charles A. Bernier, director of athletics at the University of Alabama; has been secured to fill the same position at Hampden-Sidney college, and will take up his duties in June, according to information received here last night. The information could not be verified definitely, but Bernier, who has been known for some time that Bernier was under consideration, are practically certain that he has accepted the appointment.

Bernier, according to a message from Alabama, denied that he had accepted the post at Hampden-Sidney, and is quoted as saying he had signed for another year with Alabama.

Tiger alumni have known for several weeks that Coach Bernier, an alumnus of the institution and a former coach there, was being considered and that an effort was being made to have him succeed E. C. Roudy, who has coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term. He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Game Between Proposed Varsity and Old-Timers Is Scheduled to Be Played May 5.

"This looks like the middle of the season," sighed Felton McConnell as he draped his weary form around the stove for warmth. This is the keynote of the present spring football practice at Tech.

The writer went out in uniform yesterday for the first time, and if the work is any lighter than the October work of the past five years, he failed to note the difference.

Sixty men are out in uniform. A corps of the men who will be lost from last year's team are out helping out with the new material. Lyman, McDonough, A. Stator, Borum, Poyon are among those present.

Tuesday Station took the ends and put them through a stiff workout, scrimmage being out in the field. The freshmen went with Pup Phillips, the dummies where they tackled and outdoor until all of them were tired out and will be played on the lower field, as the basal team is playing the University of North Carolina on the upper field at that date.

After this the whole squad went down under pants and tackled. Claire Frye sustained the first casualty of the season when he came up with blood streaming from his head where a cleat had cut him. The last act on the program was a stiff signal drill with a defensive team offering some opposition. Frye was again the goat and sustained a bruised hand when someone over anxious tackle stamped it into the ground.

Real honest-to-goodness scrimmage starts in two weeks. This will lead up to the only game of the spring season, which is to be played May 5. This game will be between the proposed lineup for next year and the men who played on the team last year, but who will not be eligible to play next year.

The two teams will line up about as follows, from indications at this time of the year: Tech—Frye center, McConnell and McIntyre guards, Connel and Uryt backs, J. Stator and Gardner ends, Goodwin fullback, W. McDonough fullback, Hunt and Harris halfbacks, Oldimers—Amis or LeBay center, Davis and Borum guards, Mitchell, Argentroot and Poyon ends, A. Stator and Lyman tackles, McDonough quarter, Homer Carter fullback, Barron and Brewster halves.

This game will start at 2:30 o'clock and will be played on the lower field, as the basal team is playing the University of North Carolina on the upper field at that date.

The National Assembly of Panama has rejected a bill giving women permission to practice law.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—(Associated Press.)—The University of Kentucky Athletic and Alumni authorities are contemplating plans for the erection of a mammoth stadium, to be the largest in the south, on the present site of Stoll field. When completed, the structure will comfortably accommodate 25,000 people. The cost will be not less than $250,000.

The great concrete stadium will be of horseshoe shape and will be 400 feet long with thirty-five rows of seats. The first subscriptions will be taken among the students of the university, and it is expected that $25,000 will be raised on the campus. The students will subscribe approximately $25 each and will have sixteen months in which to pay the amount.

The structure will present the appearance of a great building with a glazed front. The drive for funds will open Tuesday and it is thought that a good part of the stadium will be completed by the opening of the grid season this year. Along with the stadium will be built a basketball building.

Richmond, Va., April 17.—(Special.)—Charles A. Bernier, director of athletics at the University of Alabama; has been secured to fill the same position at Hampden-Sidney college, and will take up his duties in June, according to information received here last night. The information could not be verified definitely, but Bernier, who has been known for some time that Bernier was under consideration, are practically certain that he has accepted the appointment.

Bernier, according to a message from Alabama, denied that he had accepted the post at Hampden-Sidney, and is quoted as saying he had signed for another year with Alabama.

Tiger alumni have known for several weeks that Coach Bernier, an alumnus of the institution and a former coach there, was being considered and that an effort was being made to have him succeed E. C. Roudy, who has coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

Hampden-Sidney Officials Anxious to Have Bernier Direct Their Athletics

Alumnus of Hampden-Sidney, Bernier Is Being Offered Fine Salary to Return To Alma Mater as Director.

Richmond, Va., April 17.—(Special.)—Charles A. Bernier, director of athletics at the University of Alabama; has been secured to fill the same position at Hampden-Sidney college, and will take up his duties in June, according to information received here last night. The information could not be verified definitely, but Bernier, who has been known for some time that Bernier was under consideration, are practically certain that he has accepted the appointment.

Bernier, according to a message from Alabama, denied that he had accepted the post at Hampden-Sidney, and is quoted as saying he had signed for another year with Alabama.

Tiger alumni have known for several weeks that Coach Bernier, an alumnus of the institution and a former coach there, was being considered and that an effort was being made to have him succeed E. C. Roudy, who has coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

The selection of Charles Bernier as director of athletics at Hampden-Sidney is regarded with high favor by the alumni and it is thought that it will mark a new era in athletics at the school.

Bernier began his coaching activities at Hampden-Sidney in 1914, and has had a phenomenal rise in the coaching world. He remained there for three years, turning out such athletes as Henry Crisp, famous one-armed All-South Atlantic tackle; "Ching" Graham, all-Virginia halfback, and many others. Later he went to Virginia Polytechnic institute, where he coached the Tiger team for three years, at the end of the present term.

He will enter actively into his new duties in June, and it is expected that football practice this year will be called unusually early to allow him plenty of time to develop his material.

Alumni Highly Pleased.

Volunteers Have Chance To Obtain Chick Shorten

Nashville, Tenn., April 17.—(Special.)—Chick Shorten, for eight years a flycatcher in the major loop, has been offered to the Vols by Cincinnati.

If he will agree to come south, he will display his suburban wares in behalf of Jimmy Hamilton. The Vol skipper wasted no time in accepting the Redleg's offer. Shorten, at present, is at his home in Scranton, Pa., where he has been awaiting disposition of his services by Garry Herrmann.

Slated for a berth with St. Paul as part payment in the Rube Benton deal, Shorten may balk at coming south. But the scheme to ship him to the Saints has been permanently blocked by Judge Landis. Being thus barred from AA society, as has been the fate of numerous ball tossers, since the draft war was declared, Shorten may be willing to accept the transfer to Dixie.

He was obtained from the Browns by Cincinnati, on waivers after having clubbed for a 275 mark with the Fohites. The Reds paid $4,000 to land the former Red Sox, Tiger and Brown and then found him expensive baggage because Judge Landis spoiled the tea table. Foiled in their efforts to use Shorten as pay for the much discussed Mr. Benton, the Reds offered him to the Vols. That move came after Judge Landis informed the Reds they could use no player in lieu of cash, who was obtained after the Benton matter was hatched.

Which practically forces Chick Shorten to come to the Martin circuit. That is unless he wishes to retire.

"If he is good enough for Mike Kelly at St. Paul, he ought to be good enough for me down here," Jimmy Hamilton remarked last night in discussing the deal. "I do hope that I can induce him to come south for he should hit in this league. He can field and should help us a great deal."

Shorten is a left-handed batter but throws with the other fin. He is not blessed with an unusually strong wing—he never was—but ranges far and wide and has been noted in the majors for circus catches.

"I'm tickled to death to play for Jimmy Hamilton," De Witt Le Boutreau announced yesterday as he passed for breath between two strenuous workouts. The Californian was with the Vol pilot in Peoria in 1919, being sold from that outfit to the Phils.

The huge flycatcher is a collegian.

GEORGIA TO PLAY TODAY

Athens, Ga., April 18.—(Special.)—With an even break in the number of games won and lost for the season, the University of Georgia baseball team departed tonight for Starkville, Miss., where they will meet the Mississippi A. and M. in a six-game series Wednesday and Thursday. The Bulldogs have won six and lost six games and they will begin their invasion of Mississippi and Alabama with rather dismal looking prospects as far as pitchers are concerned.

Cliff Pantano accompanied the squad but he has as yet not completely recovered from a sore arm which was incurred during the early training season and the chances are that he will not be able to mound duty during the trip. Fred Sale, upon whom Coach Bill White has depended largely to bear the heavy end of the twirling assignments for the 1923 schedule, was unable to accompany the team on the Mississippi trip on account of having to complete some scholastic duties. There is a possibility, however, of his joining the team in Tusculoo for the series with the University of Alabama, Friday. The last game of the trip is to be played in Montgomery, Saturday, with Alabama.

For the first series, that with Mississippi A. and M., Coach White will have Andy Chambers, George Clark, J. D. Thomson and Bill Munday to mound duty. Munday or Clark will doubtless work against Mississippi. In the event Clark is called upon it will be his second appearance on the mound this year, while Thomson and Munday have also worked. The rest of the team is intact and every man will be in his regular position unless Coach White makes some unforeseen change in his line-up.

IT'S THE CREAM OF NICOTINE
Kennesaw Smoker. 5c
Jno. B. Daniel, Distributor

The huge flycatcher is a collegian.

THE LAWS OF GOLF

—By—
INNIS BROWN

Q: Will you please tell me what happens in a three-ball match where one player puts and knocks one of his opponents' balls into the cup? Does the ball count as holes for this opponent in his match with the player? What about the third player?

A: In a three-ball match, a ball displaced on the putting green must be replaced, and played. It would therefore count as holes as against the opponent whose ball hit it, or against the third player either.

Q: I would like some information about the Yorkshire handicap, just how it works and what its advantages are.

A: Under the Yorkshire method of handicapping, the two players start even, and continue to play even, until one wins a hole. Then on the next hole the winner concedes his opponent a stroke, and continues to concede a stroke a hole until the opponent wins one hole and so on. This is a very good method where two players know little or nothing of each other's game, and are unable to work in advance any fixed allowances for the round.

Send in your questions to Innis Brown. If an immediate answer is desired, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

A TIP FOR THE ROUND.
James Ockenden says:

No golfer can hit beyond a certain point in hardness without getting into the danger zone. The average professional is perfectly aware of the danger of hitting "all out" with any club; he has learned by experience, so he habitually curbs the innate desire to hit like fury, preferring to swing "within himself." The result is that, sacrificing possibly a little distance, he is able to preserve a straighter line with his shots.

Tomorrow—George Gadd on Slicing.

JOHNSON TO MEET FULTON

New York, April 17.—Floyd Johnson, Iowa aspirant for heavyweight boxing laurels, will go through with his much debated match with Fred Fulton, Minnesota plasterer, next Monday night at Jersey City, and risk upon the result his chances for winning the title.

Johnson, who has been in the main body of the charity show at the Yankee stadium May 12. This announcement was made tonight after William M. McDonough, chairman of the New York state athletic commission, withdrew his order barring Johnson from boxing Fulton until after his scheduled match with Willard.

NORTH GEORGIA GOLF LEAGUE ORGANIZED

The reorganization of the North Georgia Golf league was completed at a meeting held yesterday at the Ansley hotel by the representatives from Athens, Gainesville, Marietta, Rome and West End.

The season will start May 12 and last until October 27, and matches will be played weekly, it is said. S. A. Marshall, of Rome, was elected president, and R. G. Lyles, of West End, secretary of the organization.

BUFORD READY FOR OGLETHORPE GAMES

Buford, Ga., April 17.—(Special.) Baseball fans of Buford are all set for the third series of games to be played here by Oglethorpe. University of Florida will come to Buford Wednesday and Thursday to play two games of ball with the Petrel team. A large number of fans from neighboring towns are expected to be visitors to these games.

HOME RUN RACE

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
"Doc" Smith, Little Rock, 1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Heine Groh, New York, 1.

College Baseball.
Mississippi Aggies Won.

Starkville, Miss., April 17.—The Mississippi Aggies hit Bishop Land today and defeated the University of Tennessee 8 to 4. The teams have split a two-game series. The Aggies meet the University of Georgia here tomorrow.

'Bama Loses.
At Baton Rouge:

Score: R.H.E.
Alabama 4 3 0
Louisiana State 4 12 5
Batteries: Stead, Tubbs and Cruise; Hubert; Hilborn and Babbin.

Vandy Wins.
Nashville, Tenn., April 17.—
Score: R.H.E.
Vanderbilt 8 12 2
Auburn 3 12 3
Batteries: Richardson and Higbtower; Sheridan and Gibson.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR KENT

McQUILLAN MASTERS CRACKERS IN OPENING BATTLE

Heine Groh Stars As Giants Trum Braves 4 to 1

Brooklyn and Philadelphia Battle to 14-Inning Knot; American Opens Today

Cincinnati Reds Stop St. Louis Cardinals 3 to 2 and Pittsburgh Triumphs Over Cubs, Osborne Pitching.

New York, April 17.—(By the Associated Press).—With the National league forces already in the front lines, prepared to "fight it out on that line all summer," the American league's opening barrage of base hits will be laid down tomorrow.

The spot light in the junior circuit will be directed toward the shock troops of the New York Yankees, victors in two successive campaigns, who will dedicate the Yankee stadium, their great amphitheater in the Bronx in the opening skirmish with the Boston Red Sox.

Washington will pry off the lid against the Athletics in Philadelphia, while in the west, Iris Speaker's Cleveland Indians will entertain the Chicago White Sox and the "Sislerless" St. Louis Browns will be hosts to Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers.

Possibility of a new record for baseball attendance being established at the Yankee stadium opening was forecast today by announcement that the entire reserved seat capacity of 20,000 had been sold. At most tomorrow 30,000 additional grandstand seats and 20,000 bleacher seats will be put on public sale at the park, with indications pointing to the limit of 70,000 being touched.

The present attendance record is 42,020, made at Boston, October 12, 1916, in a world's series game between the Boston Red Sox and Brooklyn.

Notables to Attend Game.

The Yankee dedication ceremonies will be witnessed by a host of official notables, including Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, Governor Alfred E. Smith, Mayor John F. Hylan, and others. Ben Johnson, president of the American league, was expected to attend for plans to attend because of an attack of influenza.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

The Yankees, with their 1922 lineup intact, and an all-star touring staff, but an addition of Southpaw Herb Pennock will take the field tomorrow favored by a majority of critics to repeat their triumph of 1921 and 1922. The club will start the season in better shape than a year ago when Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel were out of the lineup for a month, suspended by Commissioner Landis as a result of an unsanctioned barnstorming tour. Ruth and his mighty bludgeon, intent upon a comeback to retrieve prestige lost last season, will be an important factor in the Yankee attack.

Detroit, more powerful on the offensive than the Yankees, but lacking as reliable and well-rounded a hurling corps, looks as the contender in Ty Cobb for the Yankees' laurels. Ty Cobb has instilled into his men a belief which will be hard to down.

Have New Players.

The addition of two costly third basemen, both from the Pacific coast, has played a prominent part in improving the pennant chances of both Chicago and Philadelphia. Willie Kamm, from San Francisco, gives every indication of being worth all of the $100,000 he cost the White Sox, while Sammy Hale, obtained by Connie Mack from Portland for around $45,000, has been a big find since the days of the famous $100,000 quartet.

St. Louis, minus George Sisler, its main spring on both attack and defense, does not figure to land near the top. Cleveland has strengthened several positions with promising young talent and may be the surprise of the race, but Boston and Washington are the hands of new pilots. Frank Chance and Donie Bush, appear irrevocably moored to the second division.

Groh's Hitting Wins.

Boston, April 17.—McQuillan pitched a victory over the Braves in the opening game today. Groh's triple and home run, both off McNamara, accounted for three New York runs. Despite cold, there were 16,000 present to encourage resident Christy Mathewson, of the Boston club in his new venture.

The army, marines and navy had picked men in the drill before Commissioner Landis, Governor Cox and Mayor Curlew acted as catcher, pitcher and batter, respectively, in the ceremony of throwing the first ball.

STATISTICS

Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Nashville	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
New Orleans	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Cincinnati	1	0	1.000
Pittsburgh	1	0	1.000
Chicago	1	0	1.000
St. Louis	1	0	1.000
Boston	1	0	1.000
Philadelphia	1	0	1.000
Brooklyn	1	0	1.000

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	1	0	1.000
Philadelphia	1	0	1.000
Brooklyn	1	0	1.000
Pittsburgh	1	0	1.000
Chicago	1	0	1.000

SOUTH ATLANTIC.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Columbia	1	0	1.000
Charleston	1	0	1.000
Greenville	1	0	1.000

WESTERN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Omaha	1	0	1.000
St. Paul	1	0	1.000
Des Moines	1	0	1.000
Sioux City	1	0	1.000
Wichita	1	0	1.000

TODAY'S GAMES.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	1	0	1.000
Philadelphia	1	0	1.000
Brooklyn	1	0	1.000
Pittsburgh	1	0	1.000
Chicago	1	0	1.000

FLORIDA STATE LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Orlando	1	0	1.000
Lakeland	1	0	1.000
Tampa	1	0	1.000

THE BOX SCORE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

BROOKLYN.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

PHILADELPHIA.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

ST. LOUIS.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY HIT.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY PITCHED.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY FIELD.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY BATTED.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY RUN.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY SCORE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

HOW THEY LOSE.

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Atlanta	1	0	1.000
Memphis	1	0	1.000
Little Rock	1	0	1.000
Chattanooga	1	0	1.000
Birmingham	1	0	1.000

Carbone, Stribling's Next Opponent, Has Good Record

Has Met Such Fighters as Jeff Smith, Johnny Wilson, Harry Greb, and Chuck Wiggins.

Atlanta fight fans are going to see another Joe Grimm in action when Frank Carbone, Jersey caveman, makes his debut in the Gate City with Young Stribling, Georgia Peach, in a scheduled ten round bout on May 3. This iron man has withstood the shocks of every prominent middleweight in the profession, his list of opponents including the names of Johnny Wilson, Harry Greb, Jeff Smith, Mike O'Dowd, Happy Littleton, Chuck Wiggins and a host of others.

Carbone was such a sensation in New Orleans, where he made his first southern appearance in 1921, that he subsequently engaged in more battles in the Crescent City than any visiting fighter—even surpassing the number of scraps Pete Harley had in garish town.

Bent Drew $10,000.

His battle with Happy Littleton in 1921, which was won by Littleton on a fifteen round decision, drew a $10,000 house and in a return meeting, holding his breath for a knockout, Carbone was defeated by Littleton on the fifteenth round.

Carbone's most recent fight in New Orleans was a four round knockout over Glenn Chickering, Oklahoma light heavyweight who had Harry Foley on the floor several times in a battle last year. He also defeated Chuck Wiggins, who is to meet Tommy Gibbons in New Orleans April 23.

Wiggins is known to Atlanta fans, for he was a four round knockout over Joe Lowman, who recently outpointed Floyd Johnson in Grand Rapids.

University Hi Continues Consecutive Victories

Commercial Team Defeated 9 to 2 Yesterday.

Tech Hi, Marist and Boys' Hi Take Contests.

BY ROY E

Gee, I'm Happy! My Coal Supply is In!

That's what many wise men—and women—are saying. For waiting "until you need it" is uncertain and expensive.

You'll be especially happy if your cellar is filled with Campbell's Jellico or Campbell's Furnace Lump, for there is lots of difference in coal—and Campbell's has 38 years of satisfied customers behind it. You can't buy more heat per dollar than they give you.

The saving by buying now is well worth considering. Convenient terms for payment can be arranged.

The R. O. Campbell Coal Co.

"Satisfactory Service for 38 Years"

Ivy 5000

Six Yards

Your Business—and Cement

Who operates a basic industry is less important than how many people benefit by it.

From the cement industry, an extraordinary number benefit.

In making the 455,000,000 sacks turned out last year, the mills used 8,500,000 tons of coal. This meant 8,500 coal miners steadily employed—their families, numbering not less than 25,000, maintained—and along with them tradesmen and other people enough to supply the needs of a town of over 50,000.

That is, of course, saying nothing of the business created for coal operators and transportation lines.

Sacks are a lesser item in the cement industry than coal, yet 50,000,000 new sacks, representing 50,000 bales—25,000,000 pounds—of cotton, had to be bought last year. Back of this were cotton planters, plantation workers, mill owners, mill operatives and so on—thousands altogether.

And consider these other requirements of the industry last year:

4,400,000 barrels of fuel oil
3,400,000,000 cubic feet of gas
15,000,000 pounds of explosives
32,600,000 pounds of greases and oils
1,600,000 linear feet of belting
4,500,000 firebrick for relining kilns
7,000,000 pounds of paper for bags
570,000 tons of gypsum

In addition the industry bought quantities of heavy grinding and burning machinery, locomotives, cars, rails, electrical and other necessary equipment.

It's interesting, isn't it, how a single industry can spread prosperity?

Would you like to have a copy of our brochure, "Fifty Years of Portland Cement in America"? If so ask for your free copy.

PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION
Hurt Building
ATLANTA, GA.

of National Organization to Improve and Extend the Uses of Concrete

Atlanta Boston Chicago Dallas Denver
Des Moines Detroit Helena Indianapolis Kansas City
Los Angeles Milwaukee Minneapolis New Orleans New York
Parkersburg Philadelphia Pittsburgh Portland, Ore. Salt Lake City
San Francisco Seattle St. Louis Vancouver, B.C. Washington, D.C.

PICTURES GROWTH OF ROAD SYSTEM

Mrs. Felton Addresses Good Roads Convention In Session at Greenville, South Carolina.

Greenville, S. C., April 17.—The story of the growth of the modern highway system from the days of Indian trails, the old stage system in the south before the advent of the railroad, and sketches of Indian life in the south, were spoken of briefly here today in a historical sketch by Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton, former United States senator from Georgia, before the joint meeting of the United States Good Roads association and the Bankhead National Highway association.

"Times change and men change with them," declared Mrs. Felton, "looking backward, nearly ninety years of mortal life, because I will

"Investigative Judgment Already Begun in Heaven"
Evangelist Booth's theme tonight at Cable Hall, 82 North Broad street.
Special pictures. Free seats. Come.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

Makes the Body Strong.
Makes the Blood Rich. etc.

CALL BELLE ISLE TAXICABS

THE FIRST LESSON

In life should be to learn to save a part of what you earn. Remember, it is not how much you earn; it's what you save that counts. If you are one of the men with a good income that lives up to it, there's danger ahead unless you stop it. Remember there are lots of things might happen overnight when it would be convenient to lay your hands on some ready money. Make up your mind today to open a savings account at our bank today.

$1 Starts the Account

4% Interest Paid

Open Daily 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., Saturdays 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Atlanta's Oldest Savings Bank

74 Peachtree Street

Member Federal Reserve System

Point Blank: will you try Royal Cords this year?

WHETHER it's the tire business or some other business—wherever there's lost motion someone has to foot the bill.

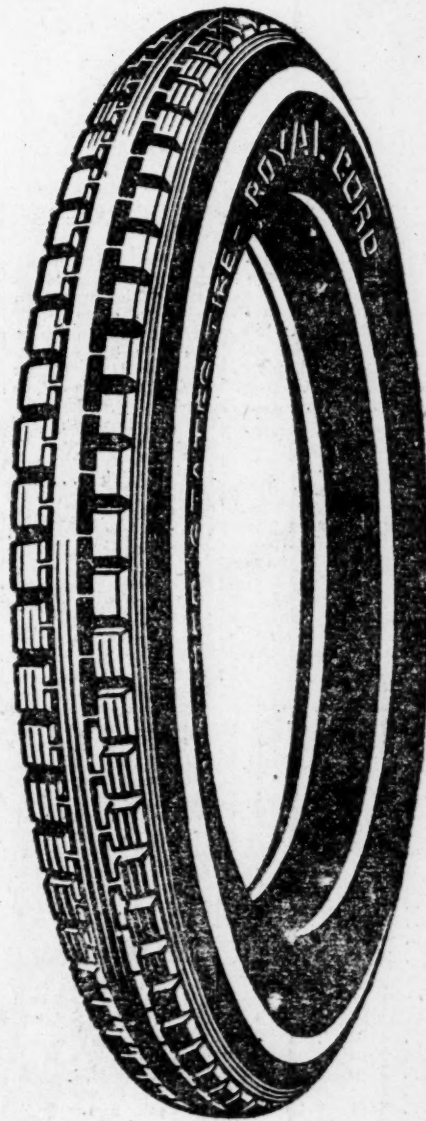

Nothing pays more than being simple and keeping simple.

Give people the best money's worth—and forget pretensions.

This works. So much so that there is confident expectation of a million new users of U. S. Royal Cords in 1923.

New car-owners, who have never bought tires before.

And the very sophisticated

United States Tires are Good Tires

© 1923, United States Rubber Company, New York

WAYCROSS PLANS ITS FIRST EGG SALE

Waycross, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Expecting one of the largest gatherings of farmers in the history of the city, local members of the Georgia association today are completing plans for the first co-operative

The Executive---

If you should die would your business fail and your life's work be in vain?

Insure your life in favor of your company. This would help to take your place at the head of the business.

Insure today—tomorrow may be too late.

Wimer L. Moore, Jr.
GENERAL AGENT

Robt. D. Taylor, Agency Supervisor
Dewey Barber, Hugh L. Bell, Robert A. Wright, Wm. B. Farnsworth, Robert W. H. Starr, Director of the Coastal Plain Experimental station at Tifton.

The Southern States Life Insurance Company
211-12-13 Healey Building
WALnut 4119

IF BILIOUS, SICK! TAKE NO CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Straightens You Up Better Than Salivating, Dangerous Calomel and Doesn't Upset You—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, dizzy and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick, you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into sour bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful and full of vigor.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children.

ones, too, who know all the ins and outs of the "tire market."

The makers of U. S. Royal Cords are in possession of lots of facts which compare their tire with tires in general.

But the Royal Cord policy is against campaigning exceptional mileages—even though U. S. Tires do deliver them.

The makers of Royal Cords do not sell by "big discounts" and other unsound practices, either.

The good, clean value of a Royal Cord is its own inducement.

Royal Cords reach out for new friends on this basis alone.

They simply ask you to try Royal Cords this year.

One million new users will say this year: "Royal Cords!"

Trade

Mark

News of Society and Woman's Work

Rhorer-Cleland Wedding is Brilliant Church Event

A brilliant event characterized by great beauty and elegance and of wide social interest throughout Georgia and Kentucky was the marriage Tuesday evening of Miss Ruth Chapin Rhorer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lynn Rhorer, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Lynn Rhorer, formerly of Kentucky, which was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock at the North Avenue Presbyterian church.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of friends and relatives by Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, pastor of the church.

Handsome Decorations.

The handsome church presented a scene of great beauty, elaborately decorated with palms, foliage and flowers of white roses. The altar and choir loft were banked with masses of palms and smilax which formed a background of greenery for cathedral candelabra holding white burning tapers, and standing in relief were large pedestals filled with calla lilies. Outlining the curve of the altar were smaller baskets of calla lilies and graceful ropes of smilax. The pews reserved for the families and close friends were marked by clusters of white roses tied with white satin ribbon.

During the assembling of the guests, Melbrey McChord, organist, played an artistic selection of wedding music and rendered "Lohengrin's Wedding March," announcing the approach of the bride party. Miss Elizabeth McChord, accompanied by Mr. McChord, sang "At Dawning" and "All for You" during the ceremony.

Bride Attendants.

The ushers, including Jack J. Simpson, Hankin Stanley, Bagley Wright and Winfrey Ramsey, entered first.

The bridesmaids entered in pairs, alternating with two groomsmen. Miss Rhorer was followed by Miss Kate Palmer and Mrs. Bagley Wright of Marietta.

The bridesmaids' gowns were fashioned differently of chiffon in the pastel shades and they carried exquisite pink feather fans covered with clusters of pastel-shaded flowers and tied with fluffy bows of pink chiffon. Bridesmaids of narrow silver ribbon were worn in the hair.

Miss Palmer's frock was fashioned of pale blue chiffon, veiling satin of the same shade. The waist was made plain with a bateau neck and the skirt, which was draped, was adorned at the left side with a large headed ornament. Mrs. Wright was gown in a frock of blue chiffon headed in a conventional design of crystals. The waist, which reflected the color of the line, was embroidered in large crystal motifs and the skirt was made with long side panels headed in a similar design.

Carroll Chenault, of Mr. Sterling, Ky., and Murray Shoun preceded Misses Elizabeth Whitman and Sara Orme, who were orchid chignon gowns. Miss Whitman's gown was fashioned of over a foundation of orchid satin; the bodice, which was made with a round neck, was without sleeves and embroidered in orchid heads. The full skirt was outlined with the beads and the front and back panels were adorned with large beaded designs. Adding a touch of color to the dress was a pink and orchid flowers on either side of the girdle.

Miss Orme wore orchid chignon over silver lace, the skirt outlined in six panels, each panel edged in crystal beads and bordered at the waist line with an elaborate design of rose, orchid and green beads.

Mrs. John R. Simpson, older sister of the bride, as matron of honor, was beautifully gowned in a draped model of pale green chiffon. The plain bodice was fashioned with a bateau neck and the draped skirt was caught at the left side with a large bow of yellow satin ribbon. Lining satin of the same shade was a yellow feather fan showered with pastel-shaded flowers and tied with a large yellow chiffon bow. A band of silver ribbon was worn in the hair.

The maids of honor, Misses Mary Rhorer, the bride's sister, and Miss Christine McChord, entered next, wearing rose chignon gowns.

Miss Rhorer's costume was made over a foundation of rose satin. The full skirt was trimmed with cream lace, interspersed with dainty bows of narrow rose satin ribbon. A heron of the cream lace adorned the waist and adding a finishing touch was a girde of rose satin ribbon.

Miss McChord's gown was delicately embroidered with pearls, the skirt being fashioned with side panels, also embroidered.

They carried orchid feather fans showered with flowers in the pastel shades and tied with fluffy bows of orchid chiffon.

The little flower girl, Dorothy Rhorer, preceded the bride and wore a dainty frock of light blue taffeta, fashioned with a round neck and made longwaisted. The narrow skirt was prettily adorned with wheels of ribbon of the same soft light blue hue and a tassel of the same shade appeared on the left side at the waistline. She carried a small white basket filled with pink rosebuds, the petals of which she scattered in the path of the bride.

Stewart Lee Baker, of Frankfurt, Ky., acted as Mr. Cleland's best man.

Beautiful Bride.

The charming bride entered with her father, S. Lynn Rhorer, by whom she was given in marriage. She was radiantly lovely in a wedding gown of white chiffon, elaborately headed in clouded crystals and rhinestones. A conventional design of the crystals, shining itself into a series of points, outlined by rhinestones—which points, joined together by a silken cord, formed the neck line of the gown—fashioned the gorgeous bodice.

Lavishly embellished in rhinestones and crystals, the same conventional design which adorned the bodice was used effectively in the skirt, which hung in points, creating an uneven hem line.

A soft girde of white ribbon was caught up at the left side with a large rhinestone ornament. Angel sleeves, gathered at the wrists, fell in graceful folds to the hem of the skirt.

Caught to her hair by a coronet of pearls was a veil of misty white tulle, studded with orange blossoms. The bride's elaborate headpiece was completed by strands of pearls looped gracefully down from either side of the coronet and by a band of tulle attached beneath her chin.

Completing the costume was a bouquet of orchids and bride's roses showered with val-de-grace. The bride wore an exquisite bar pin of platinum and diamonds, the gift of the groom's mother, and a handsome dinner ring, the gift of the groom.

Flattering Reception.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lynn Rhorer, in Ansley Park, followed the ceremony at the church. Palms, foliage plants and floor baskets of pink roses and calla lilies were used in artistic arrangement throughout the home.

The bride and groom, dressed in formal evening gowns, were assisted in entertaining by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cleland, of Lebanon, Ky., parents of the groom; Miss Nannie Iddings, of Asheville, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snow and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Thomas.

Mrs. Rhorer, mother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in black chiffon headed with crystals. She wore a corsage bouquet of Parma violets.

Mrs. Cleland, the groom's mother, wore a beautiful broadened gown of rose crepe and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Miss Iddings, of Asheville, wore a black lace gown.

The porch was enclosed in canvas and decorated with smilax and palms. Presiding at the punch bowl, which was embedded in a mound of foliage and spring fruit, were Misses Nell Clayton, Beniah Perkins and Ann Kessinger. Miss Elizabeth McChord kept the bride's book.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Cleland left for a wedding journey to points of interest in the east, after which they will be at home in New York city at the Hotel Veston.

The bride's traveling suit was a three-piece model of blue Palet twill lined in gold beads and rose and blue braid. Her blouse was of beige crepe trimmed with a pointed design of gold beads and rose and blue braid. A beige fox fur and tan straw hat adorned with burnt goose feathers completed the costume.

The bride is one of the most popular and charming members of Atlanta's social set. She attended Girls' High school and later graduated at Washington University, where she was a member of the Kappa Delta sorority and other clubs. Miss Rhorer made her formal debut in 1920-21, and since that time she has been an acknowledged belle throughout the south.

She is a member of the Delta Gamma college, where she has attended many college games. Petite and charming she is one of a group of attractive sisters.

Mrs. Cleland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs Cleland, of Lebanon, Ky., where his family is prominent in civic and social life. He attended school at the Naval Academy and later graduated from Centre college, where he was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and was very popular among the student body. He later took a post-graduate course at Columbia university in New York, and at present is associated with the New York Telephone company, in New York.

Mrs. Elsas Honors DeMolay Auxiliary.

The Mothers' auxiliary of the Atlanta chapter DeMolay was enjoyably honored on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Benjamin Elsas entertained the members at tea at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue.

The pretty tea table held in the center a silver basket filled with spring flowers. Fifty guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Daley Is Hostess.

An interesting event of Tuesday afternoon was the bridge-tee at which Mrs. Edward H. Daley entertained in honor of Mrs. Homer Park, the guest of Mrs. Virgil Shepherd.

Spring flowers decorated the rooms. The top seat prize was a bridge table cover and the consolation prize was a Madeira guest towel. The guest prize was a box of hand-made handkerchiefs.

Board of Woman's Club to Meet.

The executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club will meet Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at club house.

Mrs. Hankins To Be Honored At Parties

Mrs. J. D. Hankins, of Hartsville, Tenn., who will be the guest of Mrs. W. C. English, Jr., for opera week, will be honored guest at a series of social events.

Mrs. Pat Gillan will compliment Mrs. Hankins with a luncheon on Monday, April 23, at her home in Ansley park.

Mrs. Joseph M. Slattery will be luncheon on Tuesday, April 24, at luncheon at the East Lake Country club. Twenty guests will be invited to meet Mrs. Hankins.

Mrs. Harry Allen will entertain at luncheon on Wednesday, April 25, at her home on Fourth street.

Mrs. C. Y. House will be hostess at luncheon on Friday, April 27, at her home in Ansley park.

Other parties to be given in compliment to Mrs. Hankins will be announced later.

John Powell's Concert Program Is Announced

The program announced by John Powell, American pianist, for his concert this afternoon at the Woman's club auditorium, shows sufficient variety to satisfy everybody. The artist's versatility, both as pianist and composer, is a notable characteristic.

He opens his program with the Beethoven Sonata in C major, Opus 53. Further along comes one of his own compositions, "Rhapsody in Blue," and an interesting arrangement of the famous old masterpiece, "Turkey in the Straw." His closing number is Liszt's Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 13.

Of these special selections The New York Evening Post had the following to say after a recent performance of Mr. Powell's in Asolo hall: "He made Beethoven's Sonata Opus 53 seem as fresh as the amusing 'Turkey in the Straw' of David Colton, which he had to repeat. He displayed ravishing tone colors and tonal modulations in Liszt's thirteenth rhapsody. Professional pianists who have present marveled at his skill and his art of interpretation. It was a triumph such as has come to few pianists in recent years."

The keenest of interest has been aroused among musical Atlantans in Mr. Powell's recital this afternoon, and it is expected that the auditorium at the Woman's club will be packed to the limit of its capacity with those eager to hear him. The program begins at 2:30 o'clock. Tickets may be secured at the door at 25 cents.

The event marks the close of the Atlanta Music club's series of intimate for this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Akridge Give Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Akridge entertained at an informal reception on Monday evening at their home in West End in celebration of the thirtieth wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillip Greene.

The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adams, Mrs. J. H. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brumlow, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Greenoe and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Bowie Bible Class Gives Dance.

The Bowie Bible class of St. Luke's church will give the second of a series of post-luncheon dances Friday evening, April 20, at the home of George B. Himmann on Piedmont avenue. Bowling's orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Doughty Manley have returned from a motor trip to St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens, Ga., will arrive Wednesday to be the guest for the opera of Mrs. John MacDougald.

Mrs. Robert Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., during the opera.

Mrs. H. H. Hardin, of Forsyth, is visiting Mrs. R. N. Fickett, Jr.

Miss Louise Bogle has returned to Forsyth after a visit with Mrs. H. N. Fickett, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Larned and children, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. van Wilkison, have returned to their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Murray, of Nashville, Tenn., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Jr., at their home on Peachtree road during opera week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haynes leave for New York on April 23, to spend several weeks.

Mrs. George Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., at their home on East Fifteenth street during opera week.

Mrs. Don Pardee has returned from New York. She will sail to

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

Features which Will Interest
Every Woman

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

The marriage of Miss Betty Black and Leonard Roan will take place this evening at 7:30 o'clock at All-Saints' Episcopal church.

Mrs. Robert Edgar Smythe will give a luncheon for Mrs. Percy Smedley Darlington and Mrs. John McKinlock.

Mrs. William L. Henry will give a matinee party for Miss Edwina Lockett.

Mrs. Elton Sauls will give a tea in compliment to her mother, Mrs. W. R. L. Roberts, and Mrs. T. A. Brinkley.

Miss Gladys Byrd will give a bridge-tee this afternoon at her home in East North avenue, complementing two recent brides, Mrs. Douglas Wright and Mrs. Walter Keenan.

Mrs. Homer Davis will entertain at bridge-tee this afternoon at her home in Druid Hills in compliment to Miss Marion Woolley, a bride-elect of next week.

Miss Aileen Lonsdale will entertain the members of the Phi Pi club this afternoon at her home on Peachtree circle.

Mrs. R. H. Gordy will entertain at a bridge-tee at the East Lake country club in compliment to Mrs. Charles W. Grainger, of St. Louis.

John Powell, pianist, 3:30 o'clock today, Woman's club auditorium, on Peachtree street. Last concert series of Atlanta Music club.

The regular morning program of the Atlanta Music club will be held in Hahersham hall at 10:30 o'clock. Subject, "The Modern Opera."

Mrs. W. W. Blackman will be hostess at a luncheon today when she will entertain at her home on Myrtle street in honor of Mrs. Homer Park.

The Culver Literary society of Tech high school will entertain with a dance this afternoon at Hurst hall, on Peachtree street.

The Woman's society, Georgia missions, of the First Christian church, corner South Pryor street and Trinity avenue, will give a dinner today from 12 to 2 o'clock, in the downstairs section of the church.

Luncheon at the Atlanta Woman's club at 1 o'clock in compliment to the delegates attending the Georgia Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations.

Tea at Woodlawn, the home of Mrs. Arthur Tufts, in honor of the delegates to the Parent-Teacher convention.

Mrs. Willingham Smith will entertain at a luncheon-bridge today at home in honor of her guest, Mrs. Madison Jones, of Nashville.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Miss Mildred Gillis, of Charlotte, N. C., will be the guest of Mrs. T. T. Stevens, during opera week, at her home on West Peachtree street.

Miss Ethel Carswell, of Decatur, who is visiting in Jacksonville, Fla., is being delightfully entertained by relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hankins, of Hartsville, Tenn., will arrive Thursday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. English, Jr., during opera week.

Miss Elizabeth Lee Courser, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Courser, is ill with influenza at the home of her parents, on Piedmont avenue.

Mrs. Ralph W. Davidson, of Montreal, Canada, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Westler were among those visiting at Lake Bennett Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, Miss Douglas Paine, and Mrs. Edward S. Gay left yesterday for New York and will sail for Europe on April 24, on the Berengaria.

Governor and Mrs. Clifford Walker are at the Ansley hotel.

Mrs. Frank Freeman, of Albany, Ga., will arrive on Wednesday to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. S. Gower.

Mrs. Oscar Elsas, who has been visiting in Boston, will return to Atlanta on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doughty Manley have returned from a motor trip to St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens, Ga., will arrive Wednesday to be the guest for the opera of Mrs. John MacDougald.

Mrs. Robert Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., during the opera.

Mrs. H. H. Hardin, of Forsyth, is visiting Mrs. R. N. Fickett, Jr.

Miss Louise Bogle has returned to Forsyth after a visit with Mrs. H. N. Fickett, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Larned and children, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. van Wilkison, have returned to their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Murray, of Nashville, Tenn., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Jr., at their home on Peachtree road during opera week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haynes leave for New York on April 23, to spend several weeks.

Mrs. George Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., at their home on East Fifteenth street during opera week.

Black-Roan Bridal Party Is Entertained

A social event of Tuesday evening was the dinner party which Miss Frances For gave in compliment to Miss Betty Black and Leonard Roan, whose marriage will be an interesting event of this evening at the All-Saints' Episcopal church at 7:30 o'clock.

The dinner table, was set in the green room of the club, and was covered with a lace cover. The central decoration was a silver basket filled with pink roses, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded green tapers, tied with fluffy tulle bows.

Miss Fort was gowned in a draped model of Persian crepe.

Miss Black wore a dinner gown of black lace.

Covers were laid for the members of the bridal party, which includes Miss Black, Mr. Roan, Miss Fort, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wardle Simms, Gus Roan, Clarence Grant and Lamar Trotti.

Mrs. Dunbar Roy Hostess at Tea.

Mrs. Dunbar Roy was a charming hostess on Tuesday afternoon when she entertained at tea at her home on Peachtree street in honor of her two guests, Mrs. Percy Smedley Darlington, of Westchester, Pa., and Mrs. John MacDougald, of Chicago, Ill.

The tea table was lace-covered and held in the center a Venetian amber glass bowl filled with spring blossoms, encircled by candlesticks of the same ware, holding unshaded tapers.

Many guests called during the reception hours.

June with the Hon. and Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, for Europe, to spend the summer.

Mrs. George Brown and Miss Carrie Hoyt Brown are in New York. They will sail Wednesday for a stay of several months in Europe.

Mr. Forrest Adair, Jr., has returned from a visit to friends in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Robert Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., during the opera.

Mrs. H. H. Hardin, of Forsyth, is visiting Mrs. R. N. Fickett, Jr.

Miss Louise Bogle has returned to Forsyth after a visit with Mrs. H. N. Fickett, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Larned and children, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. van Wilkison, have returned to their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Murray, of Nashville, Tenn., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Jr., at their home on Peachtree road during opera week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haynes leave for New York on April 23, to spend several weeks.

Mrs. George Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr., at their home on East Fifteenth street during opera week.

Mrs. Don Pardee has returned from New York. She will sail to

Miss Jessie Watts Weds Mr. Rustin at Decatur

A beautiful wedding of Tuesday evening in Decatur was that of Miss Jessie Colt Watts and John Wallace Rustin, of Danville, Va.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. M. Rustin, father of the groom, officiated, and was assisted by the Rev. G. M. Eakes, pastor of the church.

The decorations of the church were unusually beautiful. Palms and ferns formed a background for the graceful sprays of dogwood and stately Easter lilies held in pedestals baskets. White lighted tapers in cathedral candelabra shed a soft radiance over the scene.

Wedding Party.

The first of the bridal party to enter were little Miss Charlotte Johnson and Elizabeth Frierson, both lovely in pink chiffon. They pulled the streamers of white tulle which opened the

Continued on Page 13, Column 1.

Store Your Furs At ALLEN'S Cold Dry Storage and Insurance 3% of Valuation

DON'T put off storing your furs. The first few warm days start moths hatching—eggs are soon young moths—then greater moths to lay more eggs—then you may regret not having sent your most expensive possessions to Allen's cold dry storage—20 degrees above zero. While they are here we repair, clean, re-model and glaze them, and they go back to you in the Fall better furs than when you stored them.

Telephone us—We will send for your furs and mail receipt.

J. P. Allen & Co.

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
19-53 Whitehall

New Navy Dresses Flat Crepe and Georgette

THE smart frock for every-wear continues to be a navy... a background like a carefully prepared canvas... takes kindly to every decoration... colorful embroideries, braids, beads...

The dress sketched... one of many very beautiful navy frocks... is made radiant with gold and sapphire beads and orange embroidery on girdle, kerchief neck drapery, short sleeves and pocket decoration... of late arrival—and very recent designing—hundreds of new navy dresses... may be seen now at ALLEN'S.

35.00 39.75 55.00 69.50

Pleated Skirts

Floating fan-like—they're the youthful things—flat crepe and wool crepe—white, grey, navy, tan—

15.00 17.50 19.75

Side-Tie Jacquetts

Sometimes they're all-over embroidered—certainly they're all-over lovely colors, exquisite—edges bound in contrast.

16.75 19.75 25.00

J. P. Allen & Co.

"The Store of Dependability"

We Will Clean Your Jewelry
Without Charge

WE will be very glad to clean up your Jewelry for you without charge. This service is equally free to our Atlanta friends, and to those who may be here from out of town to attend Grand Opera.

Latham & Atkinson, Inc.

Diamonds and Platinumsmiths
Successors to
DAVIS & FREEMAN, Inc.
47 WHITEHALL ST.

Eat More Wheat

Serve Raisin Food
Raisin Week
—April 23 to 29

Make Delicious French Toast with Raisin Bread

Let Your Baker —bake it for you

LET your baker bake for you a different and delicious loaf of raisin bread. A real, full-fruited raisin bread—the kind that made you like this fine fruit-food originally.

See how delighted the entire family will be to see this bread back on the table. Let them have the benefits of this grain-food and fruit-food combined to bring rare healthfulness as well as luscious flavor to your meals.

Try making French toast with raisin bread.

We have arranged with master bakers in nearly every town and city to make real, full-fruited raisin bread for you. Take advantage of it.

Ask your neighborhood bake shop or grocer to send a loaf today.

Such bread is both good and good for you, so be sure to let the family have it often.

Use Sun-Maid Raisins also in your puddings, cakes, cookies, etc.

Insist on Sun-Maid Brand, the kind you know is good.

Mail coupon for free book of tested Sun-Maid recipes.

Sun-Maid Raisins The Supreme Bread Raisin

Sun-Maid Raisins are grown and packed in California by Sun-Maid Raisin Growers, a co-operative organization comprising 14,000 grower members.

CUT THIS OUT AND SEND IT

Sun-Maid Raisin Growers,
Fresno, California.
Please send me copy of your free book,
"Recipes with Raisins."

NAME.....
STREET.....
CITY..... STATE.....

Connor-Whitlock Wedding is Notable Event in Marietta

The wedding of Miss Nannie Lindley Connor and Malcolm Whitlock took place in Marietta Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was held in the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock. The church was elaborately decorated with palms, many flowers and the glow of many candles. The bride wore a very lovely gown of gold with draperies of gold lace and carried a bouquet of many colored flowers. The bridesmaids wore white dresses with blue and white sashes. The groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Patton, assisted by the Rev. R. C. Crocker, the pastor of the church. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

THAT WARDROBE

Trunk of yours—Are you thinking of getting a new one? By no means make a purchase until you have thoroughly investigated the merits and advantages of our $35.00 Wardrobe Trunk. You really must see it to appreciate its fine points. Best value we have ever offered.

ROUNTREE'S

186 Peachtree St. —2 Stores— 77 Whitehall
W. Z. TURNER, Mgr.
WE DO REPAIRING

898
Paragon Folding Basket and Hot Point Iron Value 11.98

898
Paragon Folding Basket and Hot Point Iron Value 11.98

A Hot Point Iron and A Folding Clothes Basket for $8.98

Backaches are eliminated and strains in ironing unheard of, no matter how large the ironing may be—the use of a HOT-POINT iron with its strength-saving cantilever handle together with a Paragon folding clothes basket solves the problem.

Housewives everywhere who want to save themselves from strain and extra work are using HOT-POINT irons. The Paragon folding basket is an added labor-saving device that is certain to be accepted.

Get Yours Now!!

For a little more than the price of the iron we are offering for a limited time this wonderful combination.

Georgia Railway and Power Co.

SALES DEPT.
75 Marietta Street

898
Paragon Folding Basket and Hot Point Iron Value 11.98

898
Paragon Folding Basket and Hot Point Iron Value 11.98

St. Anthony Bazar Is Opened.

The bazar sponsored by St. Anthony's church opened Tuesday at 19 Walton street. The novelty booth is sponsored by Mrs. John Owens as chairman. The bazar is open every day.

The bride entered with her father, Tilden Connor, and was met at the altar by Mr. Whitlock and his brother, Milford Whitlock, of New York, who was his best man. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white satin with long and simple lines graceful and becoming to her girlish figure. A circle of pearls outlined the waist and soft lace of great beauty embellished the bodice. The court train fell from the shoulders and was edged with pearls and crystals. The same trimming was used in graceful design on the wedding dress. The tulle veil was caught to her hair in an eye effect and held with a coronet of orange blossoms.

Reception for 300. Immediately after the church ceremony a reception for three hundred guests was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Connor on Whitlock avenue. The spacious rooms were elaborately decorated with many beautiful flowers and tropical plants.

The bride's family. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock left for Savannah from where they sailed for New York. The bride's going-away gown was a smart three-piece model of dark blue tulle with a combination of beige and black crepe. Her modish hair was of brown tulle with a trimming of leather hand-painted in soft tones.

No young girl in Marietta has enjoyed a greater popularity than this young bride.

She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Connor, and a granddaughter of the late Saxon Alexander Anderson, who was a pioneer and constructive citizen of Marietta. Miss Connor bears the name of her maternal grandmother, Nannie Lindley, whose family is also prominent in the history of the county.

Miss Connor graduated from the Marietta High school with the class of 1921. She is of the dainty blonde type and has many accomplishments. She takes a keen interest in both church and social affairs, and possesses a grace and cordiality of manner which have endeared her to a host of friends.

The groom's family. Mr. Whitlock is the son of Mrs. Whitlock and the late G. C. Whitlock, of New York city. He has made his home with his aunt, Mrs. A. P. Gortz, since his father's death, about 15 years ago. He is the grandson of the late Milford Whitlock, who was one of Marietta's oldest and most prominent residents.

Mr. Whitlock attended the local high school and Castle Heights Military academy, at Lebanon, Tenn., and is prominent in both business and social circles of Marietta. He holds a responsible position in the office of the Georgia Marble company. He is a member of the S. A. E. fraternity.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton. The bride and groom were surrounded by many guests. The evening was a most notable event in Marietta.

Prominent P. T. A. Visitor

Mrs. Charles Hilburn, of Macon, past president of the Georgia Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher association, who is among the visitors attending the tenth annual convention being held this week at Wesley Memorial church. Mrs. Hilburn made one of the most interesting talks Tuesday evening at the opening session.

Atlanta Agnes Scott Club Pays Tribute to Dr. Gaines

Resolutions expressing the love and esteem in which its members held Dr. Frank H. Gaines, president of Agnes Scott college, who died Saturday, and conveying sympathy to the bereaved family were passed by the Atlanta Agnes Scott club at its regular meeting Tuesday.

The club, which is composed of graduates of the college, held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Warren Candler, 1036 Ponce de Leon avenue, who acted as charming hostess of the occasion. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. John Thompson, president of the club.

To perfect plans for the carnival, chairman and co-chairmen are requested to meet at 11 o'clock Friday morning, May 4, at the home of Mrs. Charles Lorde.

Teas to Be Given At Woman's Club On Thursday

Thursday will be the date of two interesting events in the club and social life of Atlanta, both of which will take place at the Atlanta Woman's club in the afternoon.

The tea for the Business and Professional Women's club and a tea in honor of the visiting delegates to the Parent-Teacher association.

The tea for the Business and Professional Women's club, which Miss Helen Douglas will receive with the officers of the Atlanta Woman's club, will be a lovely affair commencing many distinguished guests. Among the honor guests to be present will be Miss Stella Aiken. This entertainment will take place from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock, and will follow directly the other tea of the same afternoon.

The P. T. A. delegates will be entertained from 4 to 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Goodman, chairman of child welfare is in charge of the occasion, and will be assisted in entertaining by the following ladies:

Mrs. J. A. Carlisle, Mrs. Walter Hill, Mrs. W. W. Alexander, Mrs. H. E. Neeble, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. H. C. McCutcheon, Mrs. L. W. Rogers, Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mrs. M. A. Blake, Mrs. A. Noebur, Mrs. Charles E. Burton, Mrs. John P. Toler, Mrs. T. G. Delphi, Mrs. G. A.

Miss Mc Dowell, who is given in marriage by her uncle, was married Tuesday in a modish, three-piece costume of brown and white. She wore a henna-colored blouse and a becoming brown hat trimmed with white. Mrs. Mangham was handsomely gowned in black crepe.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony, and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Chambers left for a wedding trip to Florida. After April 25 they will be at home to their friends at 555 Highland avenue, in Atlanta.

Joseph, Mrs. A. L. Milligan, Mrs. John M. Conner, Mrs. W. P. Lemmon and Mrs. Alice Taylor.

One of those happy social affairs which are features of the week, and will be held at the Atlanta Woman's club.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

The school exhibit at Wesley Memorial church this week was announced by Miss Muse. The exhibit features the work of every department as well as the club activities of the school, equally important, held Miss Muse, because it is voluntary work on the part of the girls.

Mr. Harold Hirsch, chairman of buildings and grounds, reported an interview with Dr. Eubanks, of the finance committee of the board of education, in which he stated that there was plenty of money for the Senior Girls' high school building, but that it was not possible to raise the stockholders' fund, and a year of work would begin. The mayor had promised him that on January 1, 1924, there would be an appropriation for the raising of the stock. He asked that the association co-operate in the efforts of the committee to further the construction of the new building.

Mr. Slaton Speaks To Council of Jewish Women

In introducing Hon. John Marshall Slaton on Monday evening at the monthly meeting of the council of Jewish women, Dr. David Marx referred to the identical saying of an old rabbi in the Talmudic days and that of a recent minister, Dr. Benjamin Palmer, of New Orleans, in regard to the leadership of men. The Talmud has it "in the place where there is no man, there was a man," and Dr. Palmer says "he was a man to be found when wanted and always to be trusted when found."

Mr. Slaton's remarks were graceful, wholesome and practical. He took as the outline of his address, "Civic Responsibilities," the Watchman of the Council, Religion, Philanthropy and Education, and linked the duty, justice and sacrifice of Abraham's religion, which is the ideal of today, with the love of fellowman and service to another, which is philanthropy, and so on to education, the "twin brother of philanthropy."

The greatest charity, said Mr. Slaton, is helping someone help himself. This giving employment is the privilege of industry and the multiplication of factories makes for better competition, higher wages and shorter hours. If the incentive to business is taken away by too great taxation, not only does the employer suffer but also the burden must necessarily rest upon the whole organization. In the seventeenth century in England the passion for philanthropy became so great that the barons' tax rates forced the working man to leave his work and seek the almshouse, and the virtuous girl went the easiest path.

In conclusion Mr. Slaton made the plea that it was impossible to give too much of yourself, but in order to be of intelligent use as a citizen, it was necessary to use the head as well as the heart. Mr. Slaton sang delightfully the dramatic and descriptive "Song of the Swords" and the lyric, "Duna" and "If I Knew You and You Knew Me."

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

Credit Men Give Luncheon To Wives and Plan for June

One of the most brilliant affairs of the season in many a long day was the luncheon in the new banquet hall of the Atlanta Woman's club Tuesday by the Atlanta Credit Men's association to their wives and the ladies forming the committee which will assist in entertaining the delegates who are coming, 2,000 strong, to the annual convention of the National Credit association to be held in Atlanta in June.

Distinctive features marked the luncheon, one of which was the fact that the charming new banquet hall of the Atlanta Woman's club, which is destined to play such an important part in the social life of the city in the future, was opened for the first time.

Mrs. B. M. Boykin, the president of the Atlanta Woman's club, and chairman of the committee for the national convention, presided at the luncheon. The arrangements for this brilliant affair were in the hands of Mrs. William L. Percy.

The guests were received at the door of the banquet hall by Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. L. T. Stallings, Mrs. C. L. Williamson, Mrs. Ralph Rosenbaum and Mrs. Alton Richardson, the first vice president of the Atlanta Woman's club.

The Luncheon Committee. Mrs. William Percy, the general chairman for the luncheon, was assisted by the following committee: Mrs. B. M. Boykin, general chairman of the ladies' committee; Mrs. H. E. Moody, the president's wife; Mrs. E. B. Roney, secretary of the ladies' committee, and the wives of the officers, directors and the past presidents: Mrs. H. C. Colingsworth, Mrs. Herbert L. C. Colingsworth, Mrs. Herwin Moore, Mrs. J. L. Baldwin, Mrs. Ralph Rosenbaum, Mrs. H. D. Carter, Mrs. E. L. Tappan, Mrs. E. L. Partridge, Mrs. Robert Strickland, Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. C. L. Williamson, Mrs. William Akers, Mrs. E. A. Rucker, Mrs. M. E. Bodenheimer, Mrs. J. H. Hain, Mrs. W. C. Lowery, Mrs. L. T. Stallings and Mrs. W. B. Williamson, Sr.

Mrs. John M. Cooper was in charge of registration.

Distinguished Guests. The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

The Atlanta association convention committee members were special guests of honor. They were Herbert E. Choate, general convention chairman; William L. Percy, entertainment; H.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

Mrs. A. W. Harrington will lead the regular meeting of the Atlanta Truth Center at Carnegie library this morning at 11 o'clock. Evening class at 6 o'clock.

The Atlanta branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at the alumnae house at Agnes Scott college this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The monthly business meeting of the Euzelian Sunday school class of the Third Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Enzor, 201 Drexel avenue, Decatur, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Wednesday Morning Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. M. Davies, 1634 Ponce de Leon avenue this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Moreland P. T. A. will be held today in the auditorium of the school on Austin and Euclid avenue, the date being changed.

The regular meeting of the Ansley Park Mothers' club will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Misses Van Hook studios.

The fifth district Tallulah exhibit and Pilgrimage committee will meet this morning at Atlanta Woman's club at 10:30 o'clock.

The Merry Needles club will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. D. S. Mauck at her home, 123 West Boulevard drive, Kirkwood. All members are urged to be present.

The hospital committee of the Young Women's Bible class of the Central Presbyterian church will meet at the church Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Mary McLendon Memorial committee will hold a meeting at the Kimball house Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock. There will be a business meeting, followed by the regular weekly luncheon at 1:30 o'clock. A full attendance is urged.

The North Side Embroidery club will meet with Mrs. B. F. Hall, Lullwater road, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The ladies of St. Mark's Methodist church will have an all-day sewing meeting for the Decatur Orphans' home today in the basement of the church.

Georgia Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations will convene at 9 o'clock at the Atlanta Woman's club, when the executive board will meet, the convention called to order at 9 o'clock.

Evening session of Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations at 8:15 o'clock at Wesley Memorial church.

MISS JESSIE WATTS WEDS MR. RUSTIN

Continued from Page 13.

Two old-fashioned white latticed gates at the end of the island.

The groomsmen entered in pairs, Leo Partin and Henry Rice, then Clyde Colson and David Perkle, Jr.

Miss Neely Smith, first bridesmaid, entered next, wearing a lovely gown of orchid chiffon and carrying a mile green basket hat from which pastel colored sweet peas cascaded.

Miss Lillian Moore followed Miss Smith, then came Miss Catherine Nash. They were followed in orchid chiffon and carried mile green baskets filled with pastel colored sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore silver bandeau in the hair.

The matron of honor, Mrs. I. M. Aiken, of Brunswick, came next, wearing apple green chiffon gracefully draped. She wore a silver bandeau and carried Columbia roses.

Miss Virginia Watts, the maid of honor, was lovely in pink chiffon over pink satin fashioned with silver lace and trimmed with French roses and bows of silver ribbon. She wore a silver bandeau and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

The little ring bearer, Gordon Lovejoy, wore a white satin suit and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The little flower girl, Martha Nan Dekle, preceded the bride.

She wore a pink chiffon frock and scattered pastel colored sweet peas in the path of the bride.

Lovely Bride.

The bride, a petite blonde, entering with her father, George Selden Watts, who gave her in marriage, was a picture of girlish loveliness in her picture of white satin. The skirt was draped on one side and caught with a pearl cabochon. A bertha of exquisite point applique lace fell over the bodice. The court train was caught to the shoulder with sprays of orange blossoms. The filmy tulle veil was adjusted to her soft hair with these same lovely flowers. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Miller Reed.

During the ceremony, Frederick Under played Schubert's serenade softly on his violin, accompanied by Miss Helen Christie at the organ.

Elegant Reception.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Adams street.

Fruits, ferns and dogwood were used profusely in decorating the house.

The table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth and the bride's cake, resting on a mound of radiance roses, silver lilies and orange blossoms, formed the central decorations. Pink unshaded tapers in silver candlesticks and pink roses in silver bud vases enlivened this.

The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of turquoise blue georgette, elaborately beaded in crystal beads. Her corsage bouquet was of Columbia roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Dekle, the groom's sister, wore black broadened georgette. Her flowers were parma roses.

Mrs. Watt's sister wore black chiffon.

WOMEN OF THREE GENERATIONS

The daughter, mother, and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1875 by Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from store to store until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for women's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold—(adv.)

PICTURES FRAMED

HIGHEST QUALITY LOWEST PRICES
Georgia Art Supply Co.
65 S. Broad St.
Manufacturers—Jobbers—Retailers

MAKES FEET FEEL FINE

The instant you apply a little strip of soothing Red Top Callosity Plaster to that sore, "achey" callous, corn or bunion, you'll forget your foot troubles.

RED TOP CALLOSITY PLASTER

removes hard growths, relieves itching, soothes, and keeps you walking with comfort from the start. RED TOP is the sure, safe way to foot comfort—it's simple, easy to apply, comforting to wear. Sure relief of money back. Many applications in the "handy roll," sold by Sorrelia Shoe Parlor, First Floor

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Georgian Terrace Teas Will Be Gay Events

The Georgian Terrace will be the gayest social center during opera week with the presence of the opera stars who will stay there while in the city. And added to the galaxy of lovely people who make the Terrace their home will be throngs of brilliant and beautiful guests from every part of the south.

Of all of the opera gaieties none is more anticipated or enjoyed than are the open air teas in the lovely piazza of this hotel and assembling hundreds of beautifully gowned women and handsome men after the opera matinees.

Music and flowers, the presence of many opera stars and visitors make these teas notable events in the social life of each year.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Brown Gives Luncheon.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

The first of the Terrace teas will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Those who have made reservations are Mrs. D. B. Thornton, Mrs. E. W. McCreren, Mrs. J. Paul Brooks, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga.; Mrs. Donald McIver, Mrs. Ott Alston, Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Dunson and Mrs. John B. Roberts.

The reservations for Thursday afternoon, April 26, include Miss Artie Chase, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. J. Clarence Smulian, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, Mrs. Robert Otis, Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. R. T. Gibson.

Among those entertaining at the supper-dance after the opera on Wednesday evening are Captain Phil Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Hudson, of Warm Springs, Georgia.

Miss Cora Brown was hostess at a spend-the-day party on Monday, in compliment to the members of her church circle.

The morning was spent in the study of missions, after which luncheon was served.

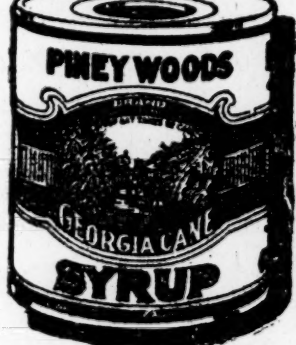

The table in the dining room was overlaid with a lace and linen cover. A large silver basket of garden flowers adorned the center of the table, surrounded by silver candlesticks holding unshaded pink tapers.

Miss Brown received her guests wearing a gown of orchid crepe.

If You Have Never Tasted PINEY-WOODS BRAND

100% Pure Georgia Cane Syrup

You have a delicious treat in store for you

Piney-Woods is absolutely Pure with the real sugar cane flavor that can't be imitated. It is made and canned in the famous cane fields of South Georgia where the best sugar cane grows.

Try It Once and You'll Have No Other

Cairo Syrup Co.

Atlanta, Ga.

Cairo, Ga.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

The Newest Guimpes

To Wear With Coats and Sweaters

Are Specially Priced

Real lace trimmed, with beautiful Val., Venice, Filet and Irish laces. Frills, Bramley's and Tuxedo styles of newest designs in cream and ecru nets.

Very Special Values at $4.95

Special Neckwear Showing at 95c

A very large variety of pretty new things in organdie, net, lace, eyelet and embroidered linens. Collar and cuff sets, Berthas, Tuxedo collars, Bramley collars and boat-shape collars. A surprisingly beautiful showing at a very special price.

New Scarfs

Beautiful woven silk scarfs in all the sports colors and bright high shades. One of these lovely scarfs will add dash and color to even the soberest costume!

Attractively priced at $4.95

Neckwear Section—Front

Mah-Jongg

The fascinating Chinese game that is taking the country by storm—more interesting than bridge and chess combined.

Sets at $20.00 and $25.00
Instruction Books (Babcock's) $2.50

Notions Section

A Beauty Contest

in which

Cottons Vie With Silks

Beauty of Color

Beauty of design

Beauty of weave and of texture

Beauty of attractive pricing!

We leave it to you to pick the winners. It's a unique contest in that one can not go wrong in choosing!

The spring wardrobe will call for silks and cottons, too. Here one may choose with confidence that every entry in our Beauty Contest of spring fabrics will prove a winner in every point—beauty of design and color, beauty of quality, and pricing that can not be beat for like quality.

Some of the Silk Entries

Sport Satins—40 inches—all white, plain, and in many patterns of plaids and checks. Most unusual values at.....$1.95

Figured Crepes—40 inches—Paisleys, Orientals and every new design in the richest of colorings and most beautiful fabrics. Priced from.....$2.95 to $5.95

Colored Pongee—33 inches—Copen, tomato, tan, red, henna, rose, pink, navy; also black and white. A good value at.....$1.59

Canton Crepes—40 inches—white, black, such good colors as sandalwood, cocoa, brown, the tans, greys, navy and many others. Splendid qualities at.....$2.95 and $3.95

Figured Pongee—33 inches—most attractive designs on white and on colored grounds. Yard.....$1.95

Tru-Hu—40 inches—a new washable crepe of beautiful quality. Black, navy, rose, china blue, pink, white. Yard.....$3.95

Natural Pongee—33 inches—a very good grade with no artificial filling. Special value at.....$1.19

Crepe de Chine—40 inches—about 50 shades are shown in addition to black and white. A surpassing quality at the price.....$1.95

Printed Foulards—36 inches—small figured light or dark colorings in pretty, new patterns, especially good for children's frocks and for house dresses. Yard.....$1.95

Tub Silk Shirts—33 inches—in stripes and plaids of many beautiful colorings. A quality that will wash and wear well. Splendid value at.....$1.95

New Spring Woolens

Wool Tweeds—60 inches—in such popular shades as Harding blue, tan, orchid, old rose, grey, champagne and others. Yard.....$1.95

Wool Jersey Tubbing—54 inches—black, browns, greys, tan, jade, Copen; very good value at $2.75

Poirot Twills and Tricotines—54 inches—for wraps and suits, black, navy and several desirable colors. Splendid value at.....$5.95

A Few of the Cottons

Fancy Voiles—38 inches—a most beautiful array of new Paisleys, Orientals, flowered designs, checks, stripes and others. Remarkably good showing at.....39c

Others at.....59c and $1.00

Beach Cloth—36 inches—in blue, pink, lavender, tan and rose. Specially priced.....19c

Puritan Prints—32 inches—charming little flowered effects in fast colors for grown-ups or children. The yard.....59c

Cotton Crepes—36 inches—beautiful solid shades of blue, pink, rose, Copen, orchid, tan, cocoa, shrimp, Nile, grey, pumpkin, honeydew, corded crepes. Yard.....59c

Box loom crepes yard.....75c

Tissue Gingham—30 inches—the prettiest of tiny little checks and plaids as well as the medium and larger figured. Specially priced at.....39c

The New Ratines

Brocaded Ratine—36 inches—most attractive new weavings for sports dresses and suits. Yard.....89c

Plain Ratines—38 inches—very new imported sponge ratines in every pretty solid shade. Special at.....95c

Paisley Ratines—36 inches—beautiful new Paisley designs in this popular spring style. Yard.....$1.59

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Luncheon Planned to Dedicate Woman's Club Banquet Hall

A brilliant luncheon, celebrating the dedication of the Atlanta Woman's club banquet hall, and marking the completion of the finest and most costly women's club plant in the whole United States, will be an outstanding event in club and civic circles Monday, April 23, at 12:30 o'clock. Following the purchase of the Atlanta Woman's club building on Peachtree street, plans were immediately formulated for the erection of a spacious auditorium-theater to provide not only a comfortable auditorium for the club women, but to fulfill a long-felt need in Atlanta for a proper place in which to hold concerts, lectures, plays and other affairs of cultural worth. Since the completion of the auditorium nearly a year ago it has become the center of the artistic life of Atlanta.

Banquet Hall Planned.

Scarcely was the ground work laid for the auditorium structure when the president of the Atlanta Woman's club, Mrs. B. M. Boykin, together with the members of the building committee and the officers and leaders of the club, began a movement to raise funds for a banquet hall of sufficient size to accommodate the large card parties, luncheons, receptions and other social occasions for which the club is famous. The banquet hall, it was felt, would also become a civic asset as it would enable the clubwomen to more capably express their hospitality by entertaining the thousands of convention visitors who come to Atlanta yearly and by showing their appreciation from time to time to the civic leaders of the city and state who gather in Atlanta on numerous occasions. Immediately following the completion of the auditorium the architect who designed and supervised its construction, Thornton Marye, was engaged to draw plans for a banquet hall and in a short time the structure was begun. It is now completed and presents the connecting link between the main club building and the auditorium.

Its architecture conforms to the same style as the auditorium, the building opening on one side on the drive-way and on the other side adjoins a terrace and then the garden, which is rapidly becoming a place of rare beauty under the supervision of the garden committee and a capable group of landscape artists. Adjoining the main banquet hall is the service room and entrance to the kitchen, and to the side of the service room are storage rooms and pantries. The kitchen is extremely modern, well-lighted and ventilated, and has the latest fixtures and appliances and is arranged to provide ease and comfort in the large crowds.

Building Committee.

The members of the building committee will be the guests of honor at the dedication luncheon, which promises to be the most elaborate affair the club has ever given. This committee consists of Mrs. B. M. Boykin, Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, chairman of banquet hall; Mrs. A. H. Hazard, treasurer; Mrs. J. N. McEachern, secretary; Mrs. Irving S. Thomas, Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, Mrs. A. M. D. Wilson and Mrs. Newton C.

Wing. Mrs. Norman Sharp, first vice president of the club, and Mrs. Wilmer Moore are co-chairmen for the arrangements and will be assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. M. L. Thayer, Mrs. E. H. Goodhart, Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, Mrs. James T. Williams, Mrs. H. G. Brandon, Mrs. Omar F. Elder and Mrs. Clarence Bemis.

Distinguished Guests.

Among the distinguished guests who will be present are included Mayor Walter Sims, Congressman W. D. Upshaw, Senator W. F. George, Senator W. J. Harris, Courtland Winn, Clark Howell, editor The Atlanta Constitution; John Cohen, editor The Atlanta Journal; James B. Nevin, editor The Atlanta Georgian; Commadore James Key, of Chattanooga; Thornton Marye, Mr. McMillan, of the Volunteer Life Insurance company; Mrs. Samuel Inman, state director of women's clubs; Mrs. J. E. Hays, president Georgia Federation of Women; Mrs. J. J. Wilkins and the proceeds will be used for the purpose of sending a delegate from the service league to the Sewanee summer training school this summer. All members of the service league and their friends are invited to attend.

Miss Simkins Weds Charles P. Spangler.

Captain Tattall Daniel Simkins announces the marriage of his sister, Bessie Louise, to Charles Pinkney Spangler on Saturday, April 14, at St. Mark's church, San Antonio, Tex.

Scrip Dance At All Saints.

A scrip dance will be given by the Young People's Service League of All Saints Episcopal church at Eggleston Memorial hall Wednesday evening, April 18, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Admission will be $1 per couple, the chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. Eubanks and Mrs. J. J. Wilkins and the proceeds will be used for the purpose of sending a delegate from the service league to the Sewanee summer training school this summer. All members of the service league and their friends are invited to attend.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Removing Jelly From Molds.

A hot cloth wrung around the jelly mold will wring the jelly to come out without sticking.

New Gloves For Old.

When the white gloves turn yellow, soak them in strong coffee and a fresh looking pair will be the result.

A Child's Quilt.

An attractive covering for a quilt for a child's bed is composed of pages cut from three or four line-draw color story books, alternating the squares with blocks of plain white muslin. It will always be fascinating to the youngster who owns it.

What To Do.

Tiny holes in the hot water bag can be mended with adhesive tape. Add a little baking soda to a flaxseed poultice to make it lighter. Grated carrots, instead of diced, give a pretty color to the vegetable soup.

Baked potatoes are better if brushed with butter before putting into the oven.

French toast is delicious sprinkled with maple sugar instead of the customary granulated variety.

Burford Revival Closes.

Burford, Ga., April 17.—(Special.) Protracted services at the Methodist church closed Sunday night after a two weeks' meeting. Rev. Harry S. Allen, of Macon, assisted the pastor of this service. Twenty-five additions were reported by the church.

Georgia Business Women Come for Annual Convention

Miss Mamie Merrill, of Thomasville, Ga., and Miss Dora Mendes, of Savannah, Ga. Miss Merrill is vice president for Georgia of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Miss Mendes is president of the Georgia Federation. They arrive in Atlanta today to attend the convention of Georgia Federation of Business and Professional Women, which opens this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Wincoff hotel, where the delegates will register.

The Georgia Federation of Business and Professional Women will convene in Atlanta today and be in session until Friday. The most interesting and up-to-date women from all over the state will assemble to attend the sessions and every branch of business showing the tremendous advance in women in the business and professional worlds will be represented.

The program for the day is as follows:

4 to 6 P. M.—Registration of delegates in the Wincoff hotel.
4:30 P. M.—Executive board meeting—convention hall in the Wincoff hotel.
8 P. M.—Opening session in the Atlanta Athletic club, banquet hall. Miss Jane Van de Vrede presiding. Assembly singing, "America the Beautiful"; invocation, Rabbi David Marx; address of welcome, Governor Thomas W. Hardwick; address of welcome, Mayor Walter A. Sims; address of welcome, Alfred C. Newell; address of welcome, Miss Regina Corrigan.

Response to address of welcome, Miss Mamie Merrill, Thomasville, Ga.; Song, "Georgia," C. M. Gibbs, by federation.

Presentation of state president, Miss Dora Mendes, by Miss Jane Van de Vrede.

Presentation of distinguished guests by Miss Dora Mendes.

Address, Mrs. Elizabeth Sears, editor Independent Woman, subject, "Measuring Up."

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A central committee is made up with Miss Helen Douglas, general chairman; Miss Katherine Lovett, Miss Hortense Marion, Miss Mary Mendelhall as members.

The chairmen of different committees are: Miss Jessie Candish, transportation; luncheon given by Catholic Business Women's club, Miss Cora Ansley hotel, 12:30 p. m., April 19; Miss Mary Mendelhall, automobile tour of city, afternoon of April 19; banquet, Miss Polly Steinhauer, 8 p. m., Atlanta Woman's club, banquet hall, April 19; luncheon, Miss Katherine Lovett, 12:30 p. m., Atlanta Athletic club, East Lake, April 20; shopping parties in charge of Miss Ethel Myers.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

A banquet in the banquet hall of the Atlanta Athletic club will be an interesting social feature of the convention Thursday night.

THE VITAL FLAME

BY MAY CHRISTIE

A Stirring Serial of Primitive Passions

CHAPTER XLII.

A New World.

Lady Warrington was fussing round the baggage like a clucking hen. She had "declared" nothing, and was correspondingly annoyed when she was "charged" on bottles of French perfume, cigarettes, new gloves.

"But one is allowed to bring a certain amount of dutiable stuff into the country free of duty," she protested to an official.

"You have exceeded the amount, madam," came the imperturbable reply.

Miles felt irritated with both the women. Had neither of them any sense at all?

He was thankful when he had packed them both completely with luggage into a ramshackle taxicab and they had sped away to their hotel.

(He was going to put up at his own club, for which the Lord be praised.)

Leonie soon forgot the "fracas" at the dock in her delight over the novelty of this huge, towering, roaring city.

"Heavens! How quaint it is!" she ejaculated, peering through the rattling window of the vehicle out at the cobble, crowded streets.

"So utterly unlike London! Everything moves faster, doesn't it? Owl! Ouch!"—as the driver dodged two oncoming vehicles with amazing, reckless skill. "That was a narrow squeak!"

"Oh, you'll get accustomed to the traffic and the pace," rejoined her companion soothingly. "Everything keeps to the right over here, instead of to the left, as with us at home! And so it's rather confusing just at first."

A sudden jolt came from a directly overhead, and Leonie stared up at a skeleton framework—an extraordinarily queer contraption—on which snorted and rattled a railway train.

"Won't it fall down on us?" she cried, amazed, as the carriages apparently whirled off into space. "What is it?"

"Only the 'Elevated,' popularly known as the 'L,' explained Lady Warrington. "You ought to travel by it in the early morning, when people are going to their work! Or when the offices get out at night. A carline has more room in its little car than a human in the Elevated, at those hours! It's an amusing experience."

But Leonie wasn't listening. She was staring at the gasers-by with enthralled eyes.

"Where are the poor people? Aren't there any in New York? And no one looks old! Do they die off young, or what? And how well-dressed everybody is! Are they all rich?"

Glorious sunshine lit the crowded streets and tall buildings. The air was extraordinarily clear and stimulating. It gave one energy and vim.

Great streets of electric cars, with one sides for the day was warm and pleasant—dashed by, filled with prosperous, happy-looking men and women. Here and there were negroes, for the most part dressed as well as anybody else.

The traffic was enormous. At every street crossing—a red light, indeed, to Leonie's British eyes, the city seemed laid out on a chessboard pattern—was a big policeman, whose slightest wish was law.

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they were likewise learning from the better-bred ones that it is quite possible to dance in a decent manner. Perhaps in the long run just as much good was done through this general mixing of classes as harm."

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

"The traffic cops," said Lady Warrington, delighting in the slang. "Such handsome fellows, aren't they? Magnificent physique!"

"They are mostly of Irish extraction, are some people who are a little subnormal or perverted in feelings. Perhaps wartime conditions had something to do with a recent prevalence of what the woman just quoted would call 'African' dancing. In communities near training camps while the war lasted you might find assembled at dances given for the soldier boys young women of very nearly every social class, and of course the soldiers came from every class. And some of them danced in a dignified way and some of them didn't, but of course it was the ones who didn't dance in a dignified way who attracted most attention. Before the war these few individuals had never danced outside of a rather cheap dance hall. And while they were showing the better-bred young men and women some of the 'African' styles of dancing, they

JIL-BETT

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

Continued from Yesterday.

All that afternoon her little hands trembled so that she could hardly gather her shells. For the first time she came up with her baskets but half filled. The overseer of the fisheries frowned.

"When nonsense fills a girl's head, she's no good for work," he remarked.

Jil-Bett made no reply. How could she make an angry retort when her heart was so filled with joy?

"No doubt you will work better to-morrow, and ever after that," he remarked grimly, glancing in the direction of Jack, who at that moment was laying down his heavily laden baskets.

The words puzzled Jil-Bett, but the next instant she had quite forgotten them in thinking of Jack.

"You may be thankful I did not complain about you to your grandfather," the man said as a parting shot; "a hot time would result from it regarding someone I know."

Jil-Bett only laughed as she threw back her dark, curly head, dancing away with a heart in her bosom as light as a feather.

She waited at the bend in the path, where she was wont to await him.

Mrs. Mudge had warned her, too, that she must beware of kisses. If Jack should suggest kissing her, she wondered what she should say or do regarding it, even though she had "talked marry" and she had consented, with the proviso, "He would be very glad to providing her grandfather was quite willing."

No doubt he would reply that they must go hand in hand to him at once and settle the doubt, if there was any.

In that moment she thought of Ben-All. Would her grandfather tell Jack about him? She wished she had dared tell him of her love for Jack; begging him to love him, too, and consent.

Her heart was in the hope that she would marry Jack before he returned. She would have a protector, and so would not dare to try to harm her. He had once said to her: "If you ever become the bride of another, I will shake the dust of Katar off my feet forever."

It takes so little to warm the heart and brighten the life of youth. Jil-Bett's heart beat fast, and the color came and went on her cheeks, as she waited in the path for Jack to join her.

He was not long in coming. He smiled when he saw her, thinking what a pretty picture she made, with the background of rich green leaves and flowering date-trees.

"If you are not in a hurry home, we will take the path by the water's edge," he suggested, to which Jil-Bett readily acquiesced. Any path while walking home by his side seemed all too short.

They strolled along, he seeming more preoccupied than usual; but even this silence was filled with contentment for her.

"Let us sit here for a little while, Jil-Bett, where we can watch the sunlight on the water. To me it is the pleasantest spot in all Katar," he said.

Her eyes sought his. "It was here just where we are standing now, that I came across you on that morning, not so long since, but which seems ages ago. I do not know how it happened that I took the longest path by the water's edge that day. It must have been fate."

"I don't know as the life you saved will ever amount to much. There are times when I wish it had drifted out then and there. It is such a strain on my heart, this mighty striving to lift the dark cloud which has settled like a pall on my memory, and find myself again."

"We—I mean you—would be happier if you would try to forget all about it and just live for the future. God did not intend that you should die, or you would not have been spared. He has some other work—something else—which He wants you to do."

Jack shook his head moodily. "I could have been spared from this world as well as not. Had I died then, or if I die to-morrow, there would be no broken heart behind me—there would be no one to shed a tear."

Jil-Bett threw herself on her knees at his feet, seizing his hand, covering it with kisses.

"Oh, I would care, Mr. Jack," she sobbed, "if that happened, I should want to die, too."

"You tender-hearted little soul," he responded, raising her quickly to her feet. "I had forgotten that you might feel sorry; you, and you only. The knowledge of so sincere a friendship is, believe me, very precious to me."

Friendship! Mrs. Mudge had not told her that he would talk friendship. She was at a loss to know how to reply to that.

"The memory of so kind a friendship will never leave me," he went on, "and when I think of Katar, I can't always think of you."

"Just what do you mean?" she queried. This harping still on the word friendship mystified her. Romeo had not used that word to his Juliet, neither had Hiawatha.

"My stay here has come to an end."

It took the girl a full moment to grasp the import of his words. "You are not—intending to go—away?" she gasped.

He nodded, looking far out over the water.

"Are you not content here?" she asked quickly, earnestly.

He shook his head. His answer seemed to change the whole world for her. "No; the restlessness which has taken possession of me impels me to move onward. I have earned sufficient to take me elsewhere. I am going away from here, Jil-Bett, on the steamer which will leave here to-morrow, or next day at least."

The words struck her as a sudden, icy blast chilled a tender flower; an awful stillness, like the hush of death, came over her; the color left her face. If he had been looking at her he would have seen big tears gather in the dark, dilated eyes, roll down her pallid cheeks, and splash upon the little hands clasped tightly together.

"It did not matter to me whether the steamer was bound. I would have sailed on her. This one goes to America. Well, just as well there as any other place. I shall go on, and on, from one place to another."

THE GUMPS—THE BEST CHICKEN DINNER IN TOWN

Somebody's Stenog—Keeping Her Mind Off It

MISS O'FLAGE, YOU'VE CAUGHT A HEAVY COLD SITTING UP ALL NIGHTS WITH YOUR RADIO SET

YOU'LL HAVE TO TAKE A COMPLETE REST AND KEEP OUT OF DRAUGHTS KINDLY SAY "AH"

OH

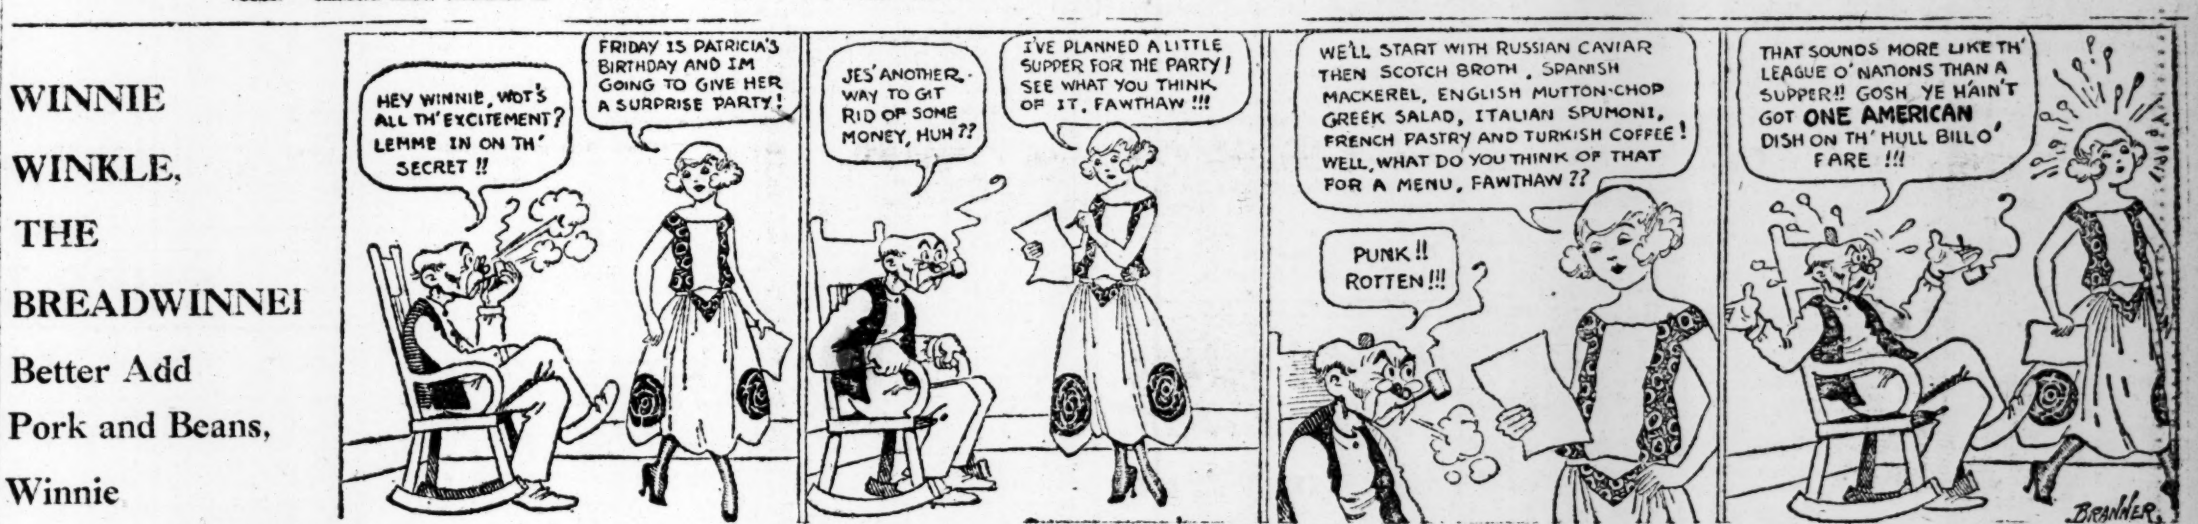

NOW NURSE, NO EXCITEMENT AND ABOVE ALL THINGS KEEP HER MIND OFF RADIO

MY STETHESCOPE

THERE'S TOO MUCH STATIC IN THIS HOSPITAL BUT I OUGHT TO GET SIGNALS— THERE'S SO MUCH ETHER

CANDY

By Hayward

By Briggs

THAT GUILTIEST FEELING

Copyright 1923 N. Y. Tribune Inc.

Klok

Facts About Cancer.

The following pertinent facts have been placed before the public by the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Briefly stated, the annual mortality in the United States from all forms of cancer is estimated at 90,000. This means that while 80,000 of our soldiers met death in the war during the same period of time 180,000 individuals succumbed to cancer. As is well known, it is almost exclusively a disease of adult life, and is responsible for one death out of every ten after the age of forty. Sex discrimination is emphatic. Between the ages of 35 and 45 three times as many women as men die of cancer. This is apparently due to the frequent incidence of cancer of the breast and generative organs. The actual number of deaths has been reported on the increase. Statistics based on a careful study of all civilized countries show that cancer is increasing. Many have been misled by optimistic reports of the decrease of certain forms of the disease, but this improvement is slight when compared to the increasing frequency of the disease as a whole. However, this need not be unduly alarming, since it represents more accurate diagnosis and a more faithful reporting of cases rather than any substantial spread of the disease. Cancer is not a communicable disease, nor is it ever hereditary. To the best of our present knowledge its occurrence in more than one member of the same family is more chance and it is not at all certain that even a tendency to acquire the disease is inherited. These facts are generally accepted even though the etiology of cancer remains unknown.—The New

JUST NUTS

Steady Advances in Stock Market Due, Say Rumors

Wide Publicity Given Tips That "Powers to Be" Have Started Drive to Boost Prices.

starting with today and for the next 30 days were going to put up prices in the stock market. The market did better today despite continued high call money.

General Motors made a new high for the year. Rails were the strongest. Call money opened at 5 and advanced to 5 1/2 per cent by noon. Rumors were heard that 1,200,000 railway employees were about to appeal to the railroad labor board for an increase in wages.

Railway employees who are about to ask for higher wages include, according to today's rumors, clerks, shopmen, telegraphers, train dispatchers

Labor conditions were the subject uppermost in today's cabinet meeting, according to Washington dispatches. George F. Baker, Jr., was elected a director today of A. T. and T., making 15 well known corporations of which he is a member. His father, who is alone in the eighties and only recently celebrated his birthday, is still a director of 35 companies.

Steel Issue Voted.

As a representative of employees moving a all. This year's price movement despite the present activity covers a range of only three points. According to gossip, the management is seriously discussing whether or not capitalization shall again be revamped; this time completely reversing the plan of recent years to issue a great volume of stock having no par value.

Coffee.

New York, April 17.—Coffee futures closed: April and May, 9.13; July, 8.55; September, 7.97; December, 7.77; March, 7.81.

Neat coffee dull and nominal. Rio 7s, 115¢@114¢; Santos 4s, 145¢@152. Rio market was 150 to 200 rels lower and Santos 300 rels lower to 50 rels higher.

Cotton Year Book

Edited and Published by C. B. Griffith,
Cotton Exchange, New Orleans, La.
Now on sale at

The Southern Book Concern
71 Whitehall St., Atlanta
Single copy—$1.50

Exporters. Exchange officials. Government officials, and the press recommend this book as indispensable to the cotton trade.

 STANDARD OILS
Bought, sold and quoted. Special letter on request.

ALBERT G. OTGEN & Co., Inc.
Investment Bankers
16 EXCHANGE PLACE, N. Y.

J. W. JAY & CO.
COTTON MERCHANTS
MEMBERS.

NEW YORK EXCHANGES
New York Cotton Exchange
New Orleans Cotton Exchange
New York Produce Exchange
New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange
Chicago Board of Trade

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS
LIVERPOOL COTTON ASSOCIATION
Orders solicited for purchases or sale of cotton and cotton seed oil for future delivery.
Partial advances made in spot cotton for delivery
CORRESPONDENCE INVITED

5 South William Street, New York.

CALL BELLE ISLE TAXICABS

C. O., Cotton Merchants are, New York
 Exchange, New Orleans Cotton Exchange. ate members Liverpool Cotton Assoc-ase and sale of cotton and cotton seed tion and liberal terms given for con-
 . Correspondence invited.

mans' Great Warehouse

and seller of cotton, spots or cutting their requirements un-on Warehouse is a magnificent modern press room, six large ranes and trucks for rapid load-age of 600,000 bales a year are nder cost of handling very low.

merchants, New Orleans
 ange, N. Y. Cotton Exchange
 Cotton Assn., Texas Cotton Assn.

AUTOMOBILES | AUTOMOBILES

Belle Isle-Street Co.
380 P'TREE ST. IVY 0508

EXCEPTIONAL OFFERINGS
LINCOLN DEPT.

 CADILLAC 61
NEW 4-PASS. SEDAN

CADILLAC 59 COUPE	CADILLAC 57 SEDAN
PACKARD TWIN SIX	HUDSON SPEEDSTER

PEWITTERS and Supplies
PEWITTERS for sale and rent, visible, months for $5.50 and up. We specialize in repairing and rebuilding typewriters. Write for catalogue C-78, American Writing Machine Co., 135 Peachtree Arcade, Atlanta, Ga. Phone WA. 2900. See our new machine, the CENTURY 33A.

BUICK SERVICE TYPEWRITER CO.
$3.00 BRINGS you an UNDERWOOD late model STEEDMAN-WARD remit. We buy, sell, exchange and repair makes. 15 Peachtree Arcade, Atlanta.
Phone WMant 1618

AUTOMOBILES

1921 Paasent.
1921 Speedster.
1920 Speedster.

BUICKS

1920 Touring "0.1"
1920 Roadster "0.2"
1918 Roadster "4.2"

DODGE

1920 Coupe.
1919 Sedan

NASH

TRUCKS

1920 Sedan.
1918 Touring.
1920 Essex Sedan.
1921 Overland Touring.
1920 Chevrolet Sedan ($100).
1918 Studebaker '6' Touring.

LOOK FOR THE YELLOW SIGN

Easy Terms

ONE 2½-TON FEDERAL

EXPORT MINIMUM

1921 MODEL, standard wheel base,
11 feet 4 inches loading space cab of driver's seat, has cab and early new Kelly Caterpillar tires,
I guarantee it.

ONE 2-TON FEDERAL LONG wheel base, good solid tires, rebuilt and guaranteed.

ONE 2-TON PACKARD
LONG wheel base, rebuilt, good solid tires.

FEDERAL
THOR. Brigham
465 East Harrison

GOOD USED CARS—Used Car Clinic home, Inc. 453 Maratta Cir. Ivy

NASH USED CARS—Martin Nash
Co., 843 Peachtree street

FOR SALE—Rebuilt two-ton White Ch
$2,000, terms. IVY 1451

WANTED—AUTOS

BRIGMAN MOTORS CO.
45 EAST HARRIS ST.
IVY 2246
Atlanta, Ga.

HIGHEST CASH PRICE paid for good cars. J. M. Harrison & Co., 10 W.

TIRES

While They Last
Seal-tyte Leak-proo

Overland touring	175	Tubes
Mitchell touring	235	1/2
Willis-Knight touring	350	Price
Paige Touring	350
Overland touring	250
Overland touring	200
Ford touring	125
Ford sedan	325
Ford sedan	275

Tappan Tire & Rubber Company

Willys-Overland, Inc.
Used Car Dept.
47 Peachtree St. Hem. 2062

SPECIAL VALUES
Under Touring, new series, sport body, individual fenders, spring bumpers front and rear, spare tire. Original price $1,495.00. Now $1,295.00.
H. Sport, repainted, 1921 model, maroon body, black fenders, red wire wheels.

AUTO REPAIRING
WANTED—Automobiles to repair, guaranteed, work called for and delivery
J. O. Corbin, 44 Arizona Ave. TV 5

BATTERY SERVICE

tan top and chairing, good condition.
 DeSoto Special '40 Touring, repainted original color, good tires, good condition.
 DeSoto. Solid new last fall, driven less than 4,000 miles, extra equipment.
 Coupe. Late '21 model, $150 worth extra equipment, good condition.
PAY CASH FOR GOOD USED CARS.
J. M. Harrison & Co.
 South's Largest Used Car Dealers.

WANTED
 SOUTH SIDE Batts. Service. Open 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. 178 S. Pryor St.
MOTORCYCLE—For Sale
 Motorcycle. 1924 Harley-Davidson, 400 cc. engine. Call J. M. Harrison, 178 S. Pryor St., for transfer Co. 131 1000.
GARAGE—Wanted

OLDS MOTOR WORKS

FORD Sedan	3500
ESSEX Touring	430
CHANDLER Chummy	365
OLDSMOBILE 6, 7-pass, new	350
DODGE Roadster	230
ATPERRON 7-pass. Anniversary	575
TRAMER, in excellent condition.	575
STUDEBAKER Big 6 Touring	408
4 Peachtree	Ivy 0642

ON endorsed notes, household goods, lib.

Have a good Buick Coupe for.....$380
Anderson Touring car.....250
HUPPERT & ROWLANDS
HALLMARKS Touring for.....650
USE are bargain as we have taken in trades and can let them go
We give first price
WYMAN A. JUDD, Salesmanager
R. SMITH & M. S. RANKIN
66½ North Fourth st.
If you will buy this car, 1920, K-45, check it out.

214 Arcade Bldg. Second Fl.
WALNUT 1810

EVROLET bargains in rebuilt
WOODWARD MOTOR CO. 76 West
Huron St. IVF 7538.

1958 Ford 7-passenger touring car. C. G.
Woodward Imperial Sedan. Can be seen between 6 and 7:30 p.m.: $750.

SALE—One 1923 brand new model
SA touring car; price $950. Call WEST
W.

SA touring car, 1928 model, with extra equipment; driven 6,000 miles; in splendident condition. IVF 8717.

Loans up to $300 on household furniture and secured notes repayable in conven-installments.

WALSH 5-5-50.

BENEFICIAL LOAN SOCIETY
421 Palmer Bldg.
Marietta and Forsyth sts.

LOAN CREDIT

AKLAND (1) KLAND MOTOR CAR
 970 Peachtree St. N.
 SUN-EXXEN touring car J W Gold
 by J W Grant Co. 220 Peachtree
WICK JOHN SMITH Co. 190-190
 West Peachtree Street
 A Studebaker, Yarmouth Motor Co.
 Peachtree St. IVy 0151
ED CARS SEE Atlanta Cadillac
 122 W. Peachtree
 will deliver for $22,000, positive financing

97 PER CENT of the business of country is done on credit leaving 8 per cent represented by cash. You therefore see the importance of keeping your credit good. It is the only way up all your bills and save your credit. cost to you is small compared to the of mind it will afford you. Under our vision of state banking organization

THE ODD RELIABLE
SURETY CO. OF GEORGIA

103 Central Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN
AT 5 PER CENT INTEREST.
ON furniture, pianos and all personal property without removal.
We also make loans on endorsed notes and perfected Payments can be divided from 1 to 20 months. If we can help you.

SOUTHERN SECURITY CO.

ERL 158 Peachtree St.
Good hand car. Porter Mingham Co.
Peachtree St. Hmlock 8745.

ERL LIPSEY CHAMBERS
St. 206 Peachtree St.
TRUCK AND CAR BAIGAINS. THE
ITE CO. 154 NO. BOWDAVE

USED CARS AND TRUCKS. Reo
154 West Peachtree

WICKET will buy your car for cash. Call Mr. for 229-152, 153, 154

PRIVATE OFFICES:
215-16 Atl. Natl. Bk. Bldg.
Second Floor, Phone WA. 0-34.

Money to Loan
If you are in need of quick money, we make immediate loans on endorsed notes or collateral. Loans to salaried people preferred; 8 per cent on 6 months repayable weekly, semi-monthly and monthly.

COMMONWEALTH LOAN

WANT

CAES PACKARD ENTERPRISES
G.A. Inc. 414 PEACHTER ST.
JOHN bodies Fords, Chevrolats, $40.50

John W. Lord, 230 Peachtree St.
RANT EMPIRE STATE SALON
 CO., 212 W. Peachtree St.

SPECIAL
Today and Thursday Delivery
$6.25 COAL $6.25
Highgrade run of mine delivered three tons and up at $6.25 per ton. Special quotations on car-load lots. This special price is for Wednesday and Thursday delivery.

Southeastern Coal Co.
32 Peachtree Arcade
Walnut 5644

New Warehouse 15cts. sq. ft.
10,000 square feet—new building—prominent paved street—300 feet railroad siding—concrete floors—ample light and ventilation—good commercial center.

BURDETT REALTY COMPANY
CANDLER BUILDING

30%--Last Chance--30%
Pennsylvania First Quality

While possible, avail yourself of this opportunity to buy new, standard, fully guaranteed Pennsylvania Tires at a saving of about 30 per cent.

Call Ivy
0656

Remember, this is a legitimate tire, offered by an old established firm, at a remarkable saving.

Donaldson Tire Service

345 Peachtree

Ivy 0656

SIDNEY J. HAYLES COMPANY

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

Fourth National Bank Building
ATLANTA

District National Bank Building
WASHINGTON, D. C.

—USE CONSTITUTION WANT ADS!—

GEN. WINANS ASSUMES MCLELLAN COMMAND

New Training Camp Director Formerly Was Stationed at Fort McPherson.

Anniston, Ala., April 17.—(Special.)—Brigadier General Edwin B. Winans Monday afternoon assumed command at Camp McClellan, following the arrival from Fort McPherson of the new training camp director.

General Winans was accompanied on the motor trip from Fort McPherson to the local camp by his aide, Major W. H. Haldip, who has been in command at McClellan during the past few months. Movement of regular army units from Oglethorpe and McPherson will begin within the next few days and it is expected that 2,000 regular army officers and men will be stationed here by May 1.

Dick Williams, a pioneer citizen of Calhoun county, is critically ill at his home in the Hillabee mountain section of the county and his extreme age makes his recovery a matter of doubt.

Commencement exercises at the "friendship school," four miles from Oxford, will begin next Thursday night, Mrs. E. W. Ledbetter, member of the school board, president, and Miss Sallie Caldwell, supervisor of rural schools, to deliver addresses on the opening night. Friday evening, the school play, "The Dust of the Earth," will be given by the school pupils.

PRESENT NEW AUTO TO ROME MINISTER

Rome, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Dr. J. E. Sammons, pastor of the First Baptist church, is possessor of a brand new touring car which was presented to him by members of his church, together with a number of outside friends.

The idea of giving Dr. Sammons such a present originated just a few days ago, and in a very short time the order for the car was made. The new car is equipped with every necessary or useful accessory, and was turned over to him with a tank full of gasoline.

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

command at Camp McClellan, following the arrival from Fort McPherson of the new training camp director.

General Winans was accompanied on the motor trip from Fort McPherson to the local camp by his aide, Major W. H. Haldip, who has been in command at McClellan during the past few months. Movement of regular army units from Oglethorpe and McPherson will begin within the next few days and it is expected that 2,000 regular army officers and men will be stationed here by May 1.

Dick Williams, a pioneer citizen of Calhoun county, is critically ill at his home in the Hillabee mountain section of the county and his extreme age makes his recovery a matter of doubt.

Commencement exercises at the "friendship school," four miles from Oxford, will begin next Thursday night, Mrs. E. W. Ledbetter, member of the school board, president, and Miss Sallie Caldwell, supervisor of rural schools, to deliver addresses on the opening night. Friday evening, the school play, "The Dust of the Earth," will be given by the school pupils.

PRESENT NEW AUTO TO ROME MINISTER

Rome, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Dr. J. E. Sammons, pastor of the First Baptist church, is possessor of a brand new touring car which was presented to him by members of his church, together with a number of outside friends.

The idea of giving Dr. Sammons such a present originated just a few days ago, and in a very short time the order for the car was made. The new car is equipped with every necessary or useful accessory, and was turned over to him with a tank full of gasoline.

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Ask for booklet or consult us about any kind of tile work.

CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
Walnut 1010 :: Hurt Bldg.

Service That Talks
Atlanta Multigraphing Co.
Walnut 1436

Such Coffee!

DELICIOUS, savory, steaming coffee, served with cream, is a feature of all Routsos meals.

Our chefs are past masters in the art of making good coffee. And even the most critical of our patrons invariably praise their work.

ROUTSOS CAFE
60 Peachtree 2 doors North of MUSE'S

Peanut Farmers Strongly Oppose Tariff Agitation

Declare Reopening of Oil Schedule Will Stop 100,000 Plows.

Washington, April 17.—(By the Constitution Leased Wire.)—A demand that the tariff commission dismiss the application to reopen the vegetable oil schedule was made Tuesday by W. W. Webb, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Georgia Peanut Growers' association, and L. R. Jackson, director of the Georgia state bureau of markets, who filed with President Harding and Chairman Marvin of the United States tariff commission, a protest on behalf of 100,000 peanut farmers of the south against any further tariff agitation.

"If the tariff commission docks the application for reopening the vegetable oil schedule, we will stop a hundred thousand plows in the peanut fields of the south within the next thirty days," the protest declared. "We accepted the Kennedy-McCumber measure as a covenant between the government and the farmers guaranteeing us four cents per pound protection on peanuts, and we have started in good faith to plant over a million acres of peanuts this season."

The filing of the application to reopen the vegetable oil schedule has frightened many farmers, and if it is docked for a hearing it will stop the planting of peanuts for this season, for every farmer knows that he can not raise peanuts without a protective tariff and if our protection is in doubt then we must abandon the crop.

"We want the application for reopening the vegetable oil schedule now on file dismissed and public announcement made of it so the farmer can proceed with safety. We are planting approximately 400,000 acres of peanuts in Alabama; 225,000 in Georgia; 200,000 in Texas; 150,000 in Virginia; 125,000 in North Carolina; 125,000 in Florida; and 50,000 in South Carolina; and if they will let the tariff alone we can double the acreage; but any disturbance in the tariff will wipe the industry out of existence."

Chairman Marvin assured Mr. Jackson and Mr. Webb that he would give the peanut growers a further and more complete hearing before a final decision was reached by the commission on whether the case would be docked.

ATLANTA WRITERS HEAR TOMLINSON AT CLUB DINNER

The newly organized Writers' club held its first dinner at the City club Tuesday night. The principal address was delivered by Edward Tomlinson, who spoke on "Uses of Adversity."

Mr. Tomlinson was introduced by James A. Holloman, editorial writer of The Constitution, who acted as toastmaster.

James Nevin, of The Georgian, and Angus Pickerson, of The Journal, made short addresses, touching on the various phases of writing.

Harry Pomeroy sang several of his own compositions. Dudley Cowles, president, presided.

COLLINS IS PROMOTED BY 'PHONE COMPANY

Cartersville, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Announcement has just been made of the promotion of Milo Collins to a responsible place in the Atlanta office of the Southern Bell Telephone company. For the past 11 years he has been manager of the Cartersville office, which has under his supervision the offices at Asworth, Adairsville, Calhoun and the connecting companies at Fair Mount and Taylorsville. With his wife and two children, he leaves Cartersville May 1 to take up his new duties.

Mr. Collins is succeeded here by Miss Cora Kitchens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kitchens, of Cartersville, who will be in charge of the office, while G. D. Robertson will serve in the capacity of plant superintendent.

BIRTHS REPORTED

To Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McConnell, 314 Cherokee avenue, a girl, April 2.

To Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Haynes, 55 Canterbury street, a boy, April 12.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fitchett, 645 Glenn street, a boy, April 8.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wiley, 18 Brook avenue, a boy, April 4.

To Mr. and Mrs. E. Vining, 85 Powell street, a girl, April 4.

To Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stevens, 9 Lillian avenue, a boy, April 11.

To Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Regetos, 229 Central avenue, a girl, April 8.

To Mr. and Mrs. T. Marshall, 197 Jefferson street, a boy, April 7.

To Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gilbert, 127 Bedford street, a girl, April 5.

To Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kimbrell, 85 North Rogers street, a girl, April 4.

To Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Maddox, 268 West Fourteenth street, a boy, April 2.

To Mr. and Mrs. Rubin Cohen, 353 Central avenue, a girl, April 3.

To Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boyd, 69815 South Pryor street, a girl, March 20.

Bankrupt Sale.

Pursuant to an order of Honorable Harry Wood, the undersigned will sell the stock of merchandise, fixtures and accounts, receivable and close in action belonging to the estate of J. A. Sudders, bankrupt, on April 20, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m. Sale to be at room 512 Grant building, Atlanta, Ga. Said sale to be to the highest and best bidder for cash and to be submitted to the court for confirmation at that time. Stock of merchandise can be inspected upon the premises at Doraville, Georgia, on April 18th, between hours of two and four p. m.

For further information and inventory, apply to PHILIP N. JOHNSON, Receiver,
STONK & SHIMOFF,
Receivers' Attorneys,
1215 Hurt Bldg., Walnut 3704.

Look for one
In Every Town
U-DRIVE SYSTEM
Phone Ivy 3266
19 James St., Beside the Anker

Buy a Home—Have the Title Guaranteed and Insured by ATLANTA TITLE & TRUST CO.
15 East Alabama St.

PROFESSIONAL CARD
P. H. Brewster, Mark Edding, Albert Howell, Jr., Hugo Howell, H. M. Dorsey, W. P. Bloodworth, Arthur Beyman, Herman Heyman, Dorsey, Brewster, Howell & Heyman, Lawyers, 607 to 621 Conally Building, Atlanta.

J. E. HALEY
"YOUR DECORATOR"
WALL PAPER and Painting
80 W. Peachtree. 1. 6026
CALL BELLE ISLE TAXICABS

MORTUARY

MRS. IDA MOONEY.

Mrs. Ida Mooney, 66, died Tuesday at the residence of her son, B. R. Mooney, of 150 Summit avenue. The body will be taken to Gainesville this morning for funeral and interment. Besides her son, Mrs. Mooney is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Norma Dodd, of Atlanta, and Mrs. W. D. Barrett and Mrs. C. R. McHugh, of Omaha, Neb., and one brother, Jim Mullinar, of Oglethorpe, Texas. Greenberg & Bond in charge.

MRS. MAE GARRISON ENGRAM.

Mrs. Mae Garrison Engram, 43, of 784 Grant place, died Tuesday at a local hospital. She is survived by two sons, Ned and Elmer Engram, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry C. Poole in charge.

JAMES GILBERT GLOER.

James Gilbert Gloer, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gloer, died at the residence, 402 Bower street, in East Point, Tuesday afternoon. Besides his parents he is survived by his grandparents, G. O. Bowman, and his grandmother, Carmichael & Paria in charge.

BUSINESS LOTS FOR SALE

We have on hand at this time several small business lots located close to the center of the city; all these are unencumbered and are for sale on very easy terms.

LUCKIE STREET. Just beyond Ginn & Company's new office building; fronts 25 ft., runs thru to Cain St.; price $12,000.

CAIN STREET. Within a stone's throw of the Red Rock office building; fronts 25 ft., runs thru to Cain St.; price $20,000.

EDGEWOOD AVE. Small brick store, No. 114, close to Ivy St.; price $14,500.

ELLIS STREET. At Courtland St.; 40x200; price $12,000.

Adair Realty & Trust Company
Hosley Bldg. Wal. 0100

LOANS INSURANCE RENTS

For more than thirty years we have done business in Atlanta. This long experience warrants our asking you to give us an opportunity of serving you. This service is prompt, reliable and courteous.

"Thirty-Two Years Without a Loss to Any Client"

WEYMAN & CONNORS
FOUNDED 1890
Phones WALNUT 0942-3 Suite 621-7 Grant Bldg.
Samuel T. Weyman Bayne Gibson A. B. Chapman

IMPROVED GEORGIA FARMS FOR SALE

335 Acres in Calhoun County.
500 Acres in Calhoun County.
520 Acres in Bleckley County.
2500 Acres in Wilkes and Oglethorpe Counties.
3190 Acres in Lowndes County.

Prices and terms furnished on request.

Farm loans negotiated. Farm lands for sale.

THE SOUTHERN MORTGAGE COMPANY
10 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, Ga.

WE MAKE REAL ESTATE LOANS

On Business Property, Apartments and Residences at five and one-half and six per cent interest.

Two Million Five Hundred Thousand loaned in Atlanta in 1921.

Loans closed immediately.

ATLANTA TRUST COMPANY
Resources $5,300,000

Rosemary Funeral Directors

Are the largest Undertakers in the world, having more than six hundred houses throughout the South.

The finest and most complete stock of Cloth-covered and Metallic Caskets.

Courtesy and Efficiency is the slogan in all of our houses.

W. Peachtree and Kimball Sts. 344 S. Pryor St.
HEMlock 6380 MAIN 1040
W. Gattine Johnson C. J. Hill P. B. Parker

AVAILABLE SPACE IN THE PEACHTREE ARCADE

We have vacant two small stores that can be thrown into one 24-foot store. One inside shop and balcony office space from $40 up, with modern service furnished. Advertising window fronts are worth price asked.

ATLANTA'S GREATEST SHOPPING CENTER
Apply Room 200

MONEY-MAKING OPPORTUNITIES
BOULEVARD RETAIL DISTRICT—Big corner, partly improved, with over $4,000 income. The vacant lot would make fine garage location.

LUCKIE STREET. Over 10,000 square feet of level ground area and has two street fronts. Have a very low price. This is close in.

SPRING STREET. South of Baker. Is improved with a new 2-story brick building. Will increase in value and pay a good income at the same time.

EDGEWOOD AVENUE. Improved with stores and paying a nice return. Owner would like other property for part of payment.

COURTLAND STREET. Between Auburn and Edgewood with alley from Courtland to Ivy. Can sell at less than anything else in block.

"Create An Estate"
A. S. ADAMS-CATES CO.
Grant Bldg. Walnut 5477

Alonzo Richardson & Company
Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg., Atlanta, Georgia
Certified Public Accountants
Auditing and Accounting in All Its Branches
Special Income Tax Department

FUNERAL DESIGNS
Gresham
West View Florist
115 PEACHTREE

MAGNOLIA CEMETERY
T. C. Bazemore Co.
Funeral Directors
81 Washington St., Phone MAIN 1247

Hunter, Blanchard & Gartrell Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Ambulance Service
Phone Ivy 0859, 238 Ivy Street

LODGE NOTICES

Members of Court de Lupa, Commandery No. 4, Knights Templar, are requested to meet at Masonic temple this (Wednesday) afternoon, April 18, 1923, at 2:30 p. m. in full Templar uniform for the purpose of acting as Tents, to receive the new members of the lodge. W. FRANK WELLS, Com. of Court de Lupa, C. G.

The regular communication of Sards Lodge No. 107, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Entered Apprentice degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. W. G. GIBBS, Sec.

A called communication of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

Regular weekly luncheon meeting, Atlanta Masonic club, Peachtree City, Ga. (Wednesday), April 18, 1923, 12:30 p. m. when the Georgia Masonic club will be in session. A splendid orchestra will furnish plenty of jazz. All members and guests especially invited. Come and bring a brother Mason.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.

The regular convention of Georgia Lodge No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple at Buckhead this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Second degree will be conferred. All qualified members are invited to attend. T. B. WOODHOUSE, Sec.